UNIT 1

Lesson 1

Staying healthy

Before you start

Discuss these questions in pairs.

- What can we do to stay strong and healthy?
- How can other people help us to stay healthy?

OBJECTIVES

Reading A poster about how to perform first aid
Writing A persuasive email to a friend
Listening A news report about medical support for athletes; An explanation of the immune system
Speaking Suggesting solutions to problems; Persuading
Language Present and past necessity and lack of necessity
Life skills Resilience

Vocabulary

1 Match the words in the box with their definitions.

infection	~~perform~~	react
severe	technique

1 This word means the same as 'do an action'. perform
2 A disease caused by a virus or bacteria. ....
3 Do something because something else has been done. ....
4 This word describes an illness or injury that is very serious. ....
5 A way of doing something with a skill. ....

Reading

2 Read the poster about how to do first aid. What does the poster tell us about helping people?

A You can help an ill or injured person, but don't hurt yourself.
B You should help an ill or injured person, but only in the correct way.
C Always call the emergency services (123) before helping an ill or injured person.

CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation)

HOW TO PERFORM FIRST AID

1 If you find an ill or injured person, you must check the area around them first to make sure it isn't dangerous. Then move closer to the person and look carefully at him/her. Does he/she seem to be very ill? Does he/she have severe injuries?

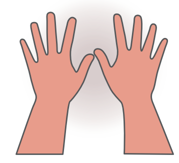

2 If the person is awake but not bleeding, you have to ask him/her how he/she feels and what happened. Check his/her body for signs of injury or infection. You don't have to touch the person's body to do this.

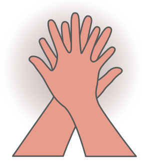

3 If the person doesn't reply, touch his/her shoulder or foot and shout to see if he/she reacts, and remember to check for normal breathing.

4 If the person isn't breathing, someone must call the emergency services immediately (123).

5 If you know how to perform CPR, you have to do this to help the person start breathing again. However, you mustn't do CPR unless the person is lying on his/her back on a flat surface such as the floor.

6 Place your hand on the centre of the person's chest. Put your other hand on top of the first hand and lock your fingers together. Make sure that your shoulders are above your hands.

Step 1

Step 2

Step 3

7 You don't have to press down on the person's chest very much – only five to six centimetres. Keep your hands on his/her chest and allow it to rise up again. You have to do this 100 to 120 times a minute until the person starts breathing again.

3 Read the poster again. Answer the questions.

1 What must you do first if you find someone who is ill or injured? Check the area around him/her.
2 What can you check without touching the person's body? ....
3 What do you have to do if the person doesn't reply to you? ....
4 When must someone call the emergency services immediately? ....
5 How can CPR help someone? ....
6 What do you have to check before you perform CPR? ....
7 When can you stop performing CPR? ....

Speaking

4 Work in pairs. Watch the video and discuss these questions.

1 Why do you think it is important to react quickly?
2 Why do you think it is important to follow the instructions for doing CPR carefully?

5 Work in pairs. Discuss the advice for giving first aid. Put it in order with the most important advice at the top of the list. Then find another pair and compare your lists.

3 ....
4 ....
5 ....

ask questions | be careful | call for help | look around | react quickly | stay calm

I think we have to stay calm and be careful.

6 Work in different pairs and discuss these questions.

1 If you don't know how to do first aid now, how could you learn it?
2 If you already know how to do first aid, what could you do to develop your skills?

1 Lesson 2

Before you start

Work in pairs. Discuss these questions.

- What does the heart do?
- What can we do to keep our hearts strong and healthy?

Listening

1.1 1 Listen to the news report and choose the correct summary.

A Football clubs have to stop damaging the health of their players.
B Athletes must understand the importance of checking their hearts.
C Doctors have to educate us about regular exercise.

1.2 2 Listen again. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)? Correct the false ones.

1 Many experts agree about the importance of having a healthy heart. ...T...
2 In 2006, football clubs had to check their players' hearts. ....
3 Mohamed Abdelwahab thought that he was healthy before he became ill. ....
4 The Athletic Heart Center (AHC) opened in 2016. ....
5 The AHC had to have the best technology to check athletes' hearts. ....
6 The AHC Director believes that the AHC will help many people in Egypt. ....
7 Members of the Egyptian national handball team didn't have to check their hearts. ....
8 The book called Athletic Heart: Between Dreams of a Trophy and Sudden Death will only be interesting for young athletes. ....

Speaking

3 Work in pairs. Watch the videos and discuss these questions.

1 Do you think we all have a responsibility to try to stay healthy? Why?
2 Why do you think the report says that both athletes and their parents have to care about heart examinations?
3 How do you think that technology can help us to stay healthy?

Language

4 Complete the sentences about what to do if someone is bleeding from an injury.

have to   don't have to   ~~must~~   mustn't

1 You ...must... put on gloves before helping someone who's bleeding. If you don't, you might give them an infection.
2 Then you .... take a bandage or cloth and press it down on the area which is bleeding.
3 If anything is in the person's arm, you .... pull it out because it could hurt them more.
4 Then wrap the bandage around the person's arm. You .... make it very tight, but make sure it can't come off.

Writing

5 Schools have to help their students to stay safe and healthy. Complete the sentences with the ideas in the box.

must   mustn't   don't have to   have to a Schools must ask students to check their hearts before doing sports.

e ....

- stop giving advice on how to perform CPR
- teach students how to perform first aid
- tell students what sport they can and can't play
- have first aid kits available
- ask students to check their hearts before doing sports

6 Work in pairs. Compare and check your sentences with a partner. Do you agree with their advice? Why? Why not?

FOCUS ON LANGUAGE

LANGUAGE REVIEW PAGE 78

Present and past necessity and lack of necessity

- Use must for strong recommendation, advice, and inner necessity: Athletes must get a special heart examination. I must visit my friend. I must learn how to do CPR so I can help others.
- Use must not/mustn't to express prohibition: Young athletes mustn't miss this chance to learn about the importance of heart examination. You mustn't smoke in a hospital; it is forbidden.
- Use have to / has to when you don't have a choice whether to do something or not (external necessity): Modern hospitals have to have the best technology. You have to tell your doctor about your medical history.
- Use don't have to / doesn't have to / needn't to express lack of necessity at present. She doesn't have to/ needn't take this medicine because she isn't ill.
- Use had to (the past of must, have to and has to) to express necessity in the past: The Athletic Heart Center had to have the best technology. The players had to check their hearts before they were allowed to play.
- Use didn't have to to express lack of necessity in the past: In the past, football clubs didn't have to check players' heart; they believed it wasn't necessary.

1 Lesson 3

Before you start

Where are the following organs in the body? Work in pairs and show your partner.

- heart
- lungs
- brain
- muscles

Listening

1.3 1 Listen to an explanation of the immune system. What does the immune system fight?

2 Match the words from the explanation with their meanings.

1 boost ...c...
2 cell ....
3 immune system ....
4 organ ....
5 virus ....

a a very small living thing that causes disease
b a part of your body that performs a job, e.g. the brain or heart c help someone or something to improve or get better d a way that your body protects you from disease
e the smallest separate part of a plant or animal

1.4 3 Listen again. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)? Correct the false ones.

1 The immune system can react when there is a virus in the body. ...T...
2 COVID-19 first appeared at the end of 2020. ....
3 People with strong immune systems get ill more often. ....
4 Eating vegetables with green leaves helps our immune system. ....
5 We have to run a lot every day to help our immune system. ....
6 If you get enough sleep, your immune system will work better. ....

Speaking

4 Work in pairs. Which ways of boosting the immune system can you remember? Discuss ways of boosting your immune system that:

1 you already do.
2 you would like to do or do more regularly.

5 Work in pairs. Read the information about a friend who wants to boost his/her immune system. Make notes on the things the friend could do.

Your friend regularly gets a cold or a cough. He/She eats a lot of fast food and doesn't eat a lot of fruit and vegetables. He/She also spends a lot of time playing video games and doesn't go outside very often. Because he/she plays a lot of video games, he/she often stays up late and then finds it hard to get up for school.

6 Tell your partner how to boost his/her immune system. Use some of the phrases in the box.

You must …	You mustn't …
You have to …	You don't have to …

You must eat less fast food. Your immune system works better if you eat healthy food like fruit and vegetables.

Before you start

- When was the last time you helped to encourage or persuaded someone to do something?
- Was it easy or difficult to persuade the person?
- What kind of phrases helped you to persuade them?

Reading

1 Read the email. What type of course does Mahmoud want to persuade Fares to do?

Hi Fares,

How are you?

It's great that some of your friends are going to take a first aid course next week! I really think you should join them because everyone has to know how to do first aid. You never know when someone you know will injure themselves and you'll have to help them. You would want other people to help you too, right?

I'm sure you would be great at doing first aid because you can think fast and you know how to stay calm in difficult situations. You don't have to become an expert, just learn enough so you can help someone until the emergency services arrive. The two-day course your friends want to do sounds perfect.

Talk to you soon!

Mahmoud

2 Read the email again. Tick (✓) the reasons why Mahmoud thinks Fares should do the course.

a His friends are going to do the course. ◯

b The course will teach him something that all people have to know. ✓

c The course will teach him to do something he could have to do at any time. ◯

d A lot of other people he knows can do the thing the course will teach him. ◯

e He will find out that he can do the thing the course teaches very well. ◯

f He doesn't have to spend a lot of time learning the thing that the course teaches. ◯

REMEMBER!

In an emergency, every second is important. People worry that they will make a mistake, but the emergency services are there to help. Call 123 and they will tell you what to do.

Speaking

3 Work in pairs. Match the situations 1–3 with the phrases a–c and then help to persuade your partner.

1 I'm thinking about doing more exercise. c

2 I'm interested in being a doctor. ……

3 I want to eat healthier food. ……

a That's brilliant. You never know when someone will need your help.

b That's great. I'm sure you'd feel better, and you don't have to stop eating everything you like.

c That sounds fantastic. You don't have to become a Olympic champion. Just do enough to feel stronger and healthier.

I'm thinking about improving my health.

Writing

4 Think of something that might help to be healthier. Make notes on three reasons why your friend should do this.

1 Lesson 5

King Lear

Before you read

- Have you read a play before?
- Have you heard of King Lear?

Characters in the play

KING LEAR: The King of Britain
GONERIL: King Lear's eldest daughter
REGAN: King Lear's second daughter
CORDELIA: King Lear's youngest daughter
KING OF FRANCE (France): He wants to marry Cordelia
DUKE OF BURGUNDY (Burgundy): He also wants to marry Cordelia
DUKE OF ALBANY (Albany): Goneril's husband
DUKE OF CORNWALL (Cornwall): Regan's husband
DUKE OF KENT (Kent): A good friend of King Lear
DUKE OF GLOUCESTER (Gloucester): A good friend of King Lear
EDGAR: Gloucester's eldest son
EDMUND: Gloucester's youngest son
FOOL: Lear's clown
OSWALD: A servant
OLD MAN: A man who helps Gloucester
GENTLEMAN: A friend of Kent
CAPTAIN: One of Edmund's soldiers
DOCTOR
HERALD
Servants, soldiers and messengers of the King and his family

Act I, Scene i

[In King Lear's Palace.]

(DUKE OF) GLOUCESTER: Ah, the Duke of Kent! Hello, my friend. Have you met my son, Edmund?

(DUKE OF) KENT: I haven't. He's a fine young man. You must be proud of him.

GLOUCESTER: I'm very proud of him.

EDMUND: I'm pleased to meet you, sir.

GLOUCESTER: Edmund is my second child. I also have another son, Edgar, who is about a year older than Edmund.

EDMUND: Listen! The King is coming.

[King Lear enters with Cornwall and Albany and his three daughters, Regan, Goneril and Cordelia. Gloucester and Edmund leave.]

KING LEAR: Listen, everyone. I want to tell you all about my plan. I've decided to give everything in my kingdom to my three daughters, Goneril, Regan and Cordelia. I will also give an answer to the King of France and the Duke of Burgundy. They have both asked to marry my youngest daughter, Cordelia.

First, look at this map of my kingdom. I have divided it into three. I want to give the largest part to the daughter who loves me the most. So tell me, my daughters, which of you loves me the most? Goneril, you are the eldest, so you can speak first.

GONERIL: Father, I love you more than anything. No child can love a father more than I love you. I love you more than health, beauty and riches.

CORDELIA: [To herself.] I love my father, but I don't know what to say!

KING LEAR: [Pointing to the map.] Goneril, you can have all this land, with its green forests and beautiful countryside. Now, Regan, wife of Cornwall. What does my second daughter want to say?

REGAN: Father, Goneril has described her love for you very well. But I have more to say. Your love is the only thing that makes me happy. I love nobody as much as you.

CORDELIA: [To herself.] What can I say? I don't have the words to say how much I love my father.

KING LEAR: Thank you Regan. I will give a third of our beautiful kingdom to you and your children.

[To Cordelia.] Now, Cordelia, my youngest daughter. What can you say to make me give you more than I gave to your sisters?

CORDELIA: I can say nothing, father.

KING LEAR: Nothing? Cordelia, if you say nothing, I will give you nothing. Speak again.

CORDELIA: I cannot put my feelings into words. I love you as a daughter should love a father; but not more, and not less.

KING LEAR: But this is not kind, Cordelia. Change your speech a little, or your future will change, too.

CORDELIA: You have always been a good father and it is my duty to love you too. But my sisters say they only love you. How can this be true? Do they not love their husbands, too? If I marry, I will love my husband as much as my father.

KING LEAR: Cordelia. Do you really mean this? Can you be so young but also so cruel?

CORDELIA: Father, I am young but I am honest.

KING LEAR: Then you are not my daughter any more. You are now a stranger to me. I don't know you.

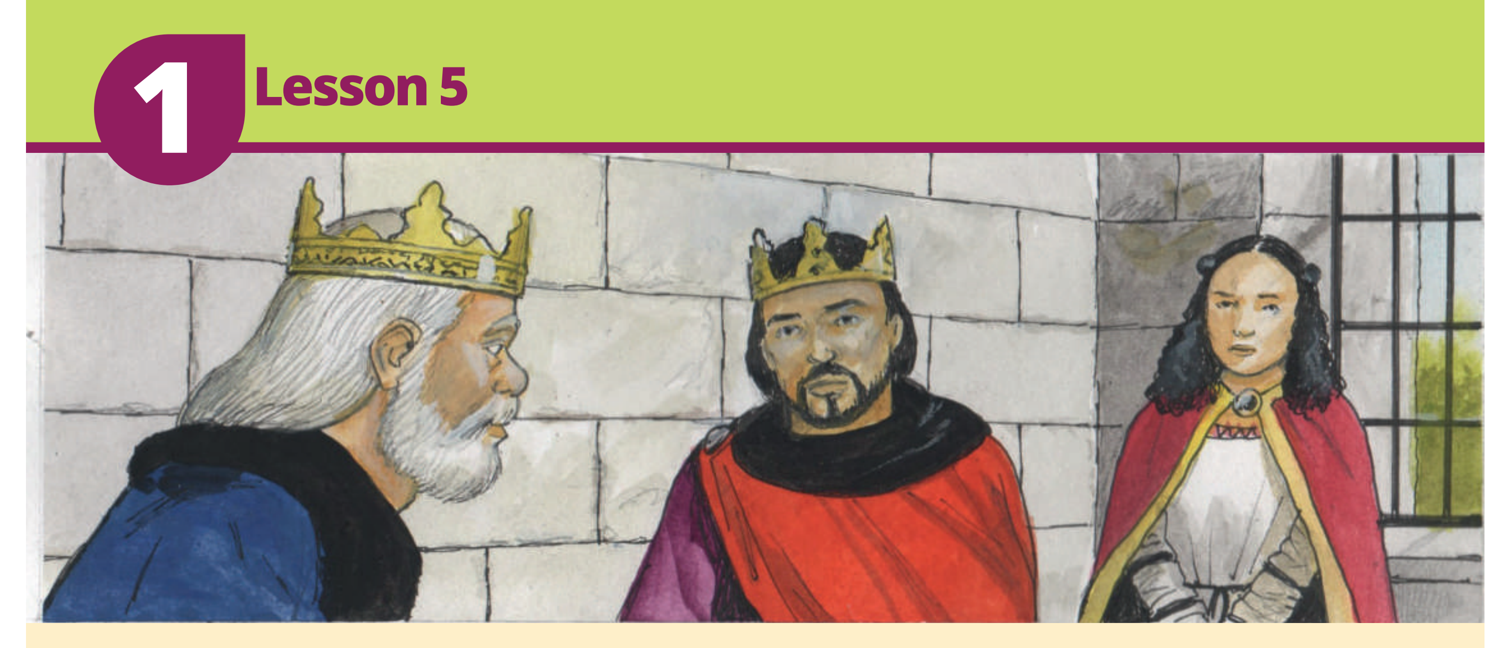

KENT: But your majesty …

KING LEAR: Be quiet, Kent! I loved Cordelia, and I wanted her to look after me when I was old. Now she must go! But first, call the King of France and the Duke of Burgundy!

While we wait for them, listen to what I say: Goneril and her husband Albany, and Regan with her husband Cornwall, will have half of my kingdom each. They will have all the power and riches that come with being a king. All I want is to keep the title of King, but they will have everything else.

1 Lesson 5

KENT: Your majesty, what do you mean? I must speak honestly when my King is being foolish. Your youngest daughter does not shout about her love for you, but that doesn't mean she loves you the least. You mustn't give your country away like this.

KING LEAR: Say nothing more to me, Kent!

KENT: I am not afraid to make you angry if it will help to protect you.

KING LEAR: Then you must go away too! Leave!

KENT: Let me stay and give you good advice, King Lear. You must learn to see better.

KING LEAR: Oh, you are a cruel man!

[He puts his hand on his sword.]

(DUKE OF) CORNWALL: Your majesty, please stop!

KENT: I'll say it again, King Lear. You've done a terrible thing.

KING LEAR: Kent! You've got five days to leave my kingdom, or you'll be killed. Go!

KENT: Then I'll say goodbye to you, my dear King.

[To Cordelia.] I hope you stay safe, young lady, because you were honest. And now I say goodbye to all of you; I shall live my life in a new country.

[Gloucester enters with the King of France, the Duke of Burgundy and his men.]

GLOUCESTER: Here are the King of France and the Duke of Burgundy, your majesty.

KING LEAR: Burgundy, I will speak to you first. What do you expect to have if you marry my daughter Cordelia?

(DUKE OF) BURGUNDY: Your majesty, I only expect to have what you promised me.

KING LEAR: I am sorry, but things have changed. Sir, there she is. You can marry her.

BURGUNDY: I don't understand.

KING LEAR: You'll get my daughter and nothing more. Take her, or leave her. It's your choice.

BURGUNDY: I'm sorry, sir. I cannot marry her without some of your land.

KING LEAR: Then leave her, sir.

CORDELIA: Goodbye, Burgundy! I see now that you love things more than you love me, so I shall not be your wife.

KING LEAR: [To the King of France.] So, the great King of France, I don't want you to marry someone I hate; so I suggest you give your love to a better girl.

(KING OF) FRANCE: But sir, Cordelia was your favourite daughter! It is very strange that she has suddenly lost all your love. I cannot believe that Cordelia could do anything terrible to anyone.

CORDELIA: [To King Lear.] Father, understand that I show my love in my actions, not my words. Please tell him that I haven't done anything wrong to make you hate me.

KING LEAR: I shall not. Go! You will have nothing from me!

FRANCE: My beautiful Cordelia, you are richer for being poor and I love you more now that you are hated! I'm happy for you to be my wife.

[To the King.] Your daughter will be queen of my country. Say goodbye to them, Cordelia, although they've been unkind to you. You have lost your life here, but you'll find a better one with me.

KING LEAR: She is yours, King of France; I'll never see her face again. [To Cordelia.] Leave now, without my love. Come with me, Burgundy.

[King Lear leaves with Burgundy, Cornwall, Albany, and Gloucester]

Before you start

Go back and skim the story. Discuss these questions in pairs.

1 What was King Lear's plan?
2 Who makes King Lear angry?

Reading

1 Read the list of characters in the play and answer the questions.

Cordelia Duke of Albany Duke of Burgundy Duke of Cornwall Edgar King of France King Lear

1 Who is the King of Britain?

An Old-Fashioned Thanksgiving

In September 1620, a ship called the Mayflower arrived in North America with 102 passengers. Many died, but some were able to grow food and survive with help from Native Americans. Thanksgiving is a day when families get together to remember these events. It is celebrated in the USA every year on the fourth Thursday in November.

In 1882, Louisa M. Alcott wrote a short story called An Old-Fashioned Thanksgiving. Here is an extract:

When they woke, there was still a large amount of snow outside. Tilly made a good breakfast for the seven children.

"Now, about dinner," she said as they all finished eating. "Ma said that we could have whatever we liked, but she didn't expect us to have a traditional Thanksgiving dinner."

"Have you ever cooked a turkey?" asked Roxy.

"Ma said I should decide what to do," replied Tilly. "All your children have to do is to keep out of the way."

The younger children walked out of the kitchen and into another room. As Tilly and Prue started to prepare the big meal, they got out all the spoons, dishes, pots and pans that they could find.

"Now, sister, we'll have dinner at five," said Tilly. "Pa will be here by that time and he'll be surprised to find us ready to serve the food. There's such a lot to do, and I'm a bit worried about the turkey. It's so big!"

"I know," said Prue. "I fed it all summer and now it will feed me," she laughed.

Reading

5 Read the extract again, then check your answers to Exercise 4.

6 Read the text again and answer the questions.

1. Why do Americans celebrate Thanksgiving?
2. Who is looking after the children?
3. What does Prue think is funny about the turkey?
4. When was An Old-Fashioned Thanksgiving written?
5. How do Tilly and Prue get ready to start work?

Listening

1.7 8 Listen to a conversation between Hoda and her American friend Amy and choose the correct answers.

1 Hoda asks if Amy's family eats

- A chicken.
- B vegetables.
- C lamb. (circled)
- D turkey.

2 Hoda explains that they don't eat turkey in Eid al-Adha. They eat

- A lamb and fatta.
- B sweet potatoes.
- C cookies.
- D pumpkin pie.

3 Amy thinks that the best thing about Thanksgiving and Eid al-Adha is

- A meeting friends and family.
- B eating lots of food.
- C watching sport on TV.
- D going to the festival.

Speaking

7 Work in pairs. Discuss these questions.

1. What is the difference between Americans and Native Americans?
2. Why do you think the Native Americans helped the people from the Mayflower?
3. Do you think that Americans are right to celebrate Thanksgiving? Why?

Writing

9 Think about an event that your family celebrates with special food. Write about:

- the main idea behind the event and when it started.
- when the event takes place.
- the special foods you eat.
- any other interesting things that you do for this event.

Comparative and superlative adjectives

Use comparative adjectives

- to make comparisons:
  He bought a faster car.
- to compare two things:
  Koshari is cheaper than chicken.
- to describe how something changes
  He is feeling happier.

We use a lot or a little before the comparative adjective to say that there's a big or a small difference between the two things:
a little warmer, a lot more expensive.

Use superlative adjectives

- to compare more than two things:
  The Carolina Reaper is the spiciest chilli in the world.
- to describe extremes: This is the hottest month.

Language

3 Complete the sentences about the three meals with the phrases in the box.

cheaper than	the most expensive	smaller than
~~spicier than~~	the most popular	rarer than

1 Nasi goreng is spicier than many other Indonesian meals, but it's very popular in Indonesia. It's also .... other meals you can buy there.

WORKBOOK PAGE 10

Before you start

- Who do you usually eat with?
- What rules do you follow when you are eating?

Reading

1 Read the article. Can you find three ways that people show respect when they have meals together?

A Personally, I think it's important to respect our older relatives. When South Korean families eat together, the oldest person at the table always starts to eat first. The rest of the family waits until this person has finished eating before they finish their meals. It is believed that this shows your respect for the most important people in your family.

B As you probably know, people in China usually use chopsticks to eat their food. However, you need to be careful about what you do with them when you're eating there. It is considered very rude to put your chopsticks vertically into your bowl of food, for example. I understand that this is a Chinese tradition, but for me, foreigners who do this don't mean to be rude at all.

C In my opinion, lunchtime isn't the best time of day for eating a large meal. However, in Russia it is thought that people should eat their largest meal of the day between 1 o'clock and 3 o'clock in the afternoon. In the evening, people usually eat some light food, such as bread and cold meat followed by tea. This is a traditional way of eating in Russia.

2 Read the article again. Underline the phrases in bold which introduce a general belief. Circle the phrases in bold which introduce the writer's opinion.

3 Read these other beliefs about mealtimes. For each belief, use the phrases from Exercise 2 to write a sentence to describe this general belief and a sentence to give your opinion about it.

- Which country will Cordelia travel to?

[In King Lear's Palace.]

FRANCE: Cordelia, it is time to leave your country now. Say goodbye to your sisters.

CORDELIA: Goneril and Regan, I am sad to leave you both. My heart is broken. Be good to our father. If he still loved me, I'd take good care of him! Please look after him well.

GONERIL: Don't tell us what to do, Cordelia.

REGAN: Yes, go to your husband. You've failed to do what your father asked you to do. Now, you've got what you deserve.

CORDELIA: I don't know what you are planning, sisters, but remember: everyone discovers the truth in the end. Goodbye!

FRANCE: Come with me, my dear Cordelia.

[The King of France and Cordelia leave.]

GONERIL: Sister Regan, we must talk. I think our father will leave here tonight.

REGAN: I'm sure he will, and he'll leave with you. Next month, he'll stay with my husband Cornwall and I.

GONERIL: Our father always loved Cordelia the most, and a poor decision has made him send her away.

REGAN: He is becoming a little mad in his old age.

GONERIL: Even when he was younger and healthy, he was a difficult man. So we must be prepared for what ill health and old age will bring.

REGAN: He was angry when he sent Kent away today. He will probably be angry more often in the future.

GONERIL: Let's sit together and talk. If our father still has some power, his anger will become a problem for us.

REGAN: You are right. Let's think about what we can do.

GONERIL: We must do something, and quickly.

Act I, Scene ii

[At the Duke of Gloucester's Castle. Edmund enters with a letter.]

EDMUND: My father Gloucester says that his first son, Edgar, will get his land when he dies. But why should I not have my inheritance just because I'm twelve or fourteen months younger than my brother? Is it just because I'm the second son? I'm just as strong and kind as my brother, and as clever too. Well, elder brother, Edgar, I will have your land. Our father loves me, his younger son, as much as he loves you. And I have a letter here. If this letter succeeds, then Edmund the younger son will beat the older son Edgar!

[Gloucester enters.]

GLOUCESTER: Ah Edmund, my son! Have you heard? The King has sent Kent away! And the King of France has left with Cordelia! And the King has left the palace tonight without his powers! This has all happened so quickly!

[Gloucester notices Edmund hiding the letter.]

What are you doing Edmund?

EDMUND: Nothing, father.

GLOUCESTER: Why are you trying to hide that letter? What's in it?

EDMUND: Nothing, sir.

GLOUCESTER: Then, why did you hide it in your pocket? Let me see it.

EDMUND: Please forgive me, father. It is a letter from my brother Edgar that I haven't finished reading yet; but I don't think you should read it.

GLOUCESTER: Let me see that!

EDMUND: OK, but I hope he only wrote this to test me and my loyalty to my family,

GLOUCESTER: [Reads the letter.]

'When we respect older people too much, it makes it hard for the young to live well. Our parents keep our money from us until we are too old to enjoy it. Older people only have power because we give it to them. Come and see me, so that we can discuss this. If our father were dead, you could enjoy half his income, and be loved by your brother Edgar.'

Did my son Edgar write this letter? When did you receive this? Who brought it?

EDMUND: It wasn't brought to me, sir. I found it. It was thrown in through my bedroom window.

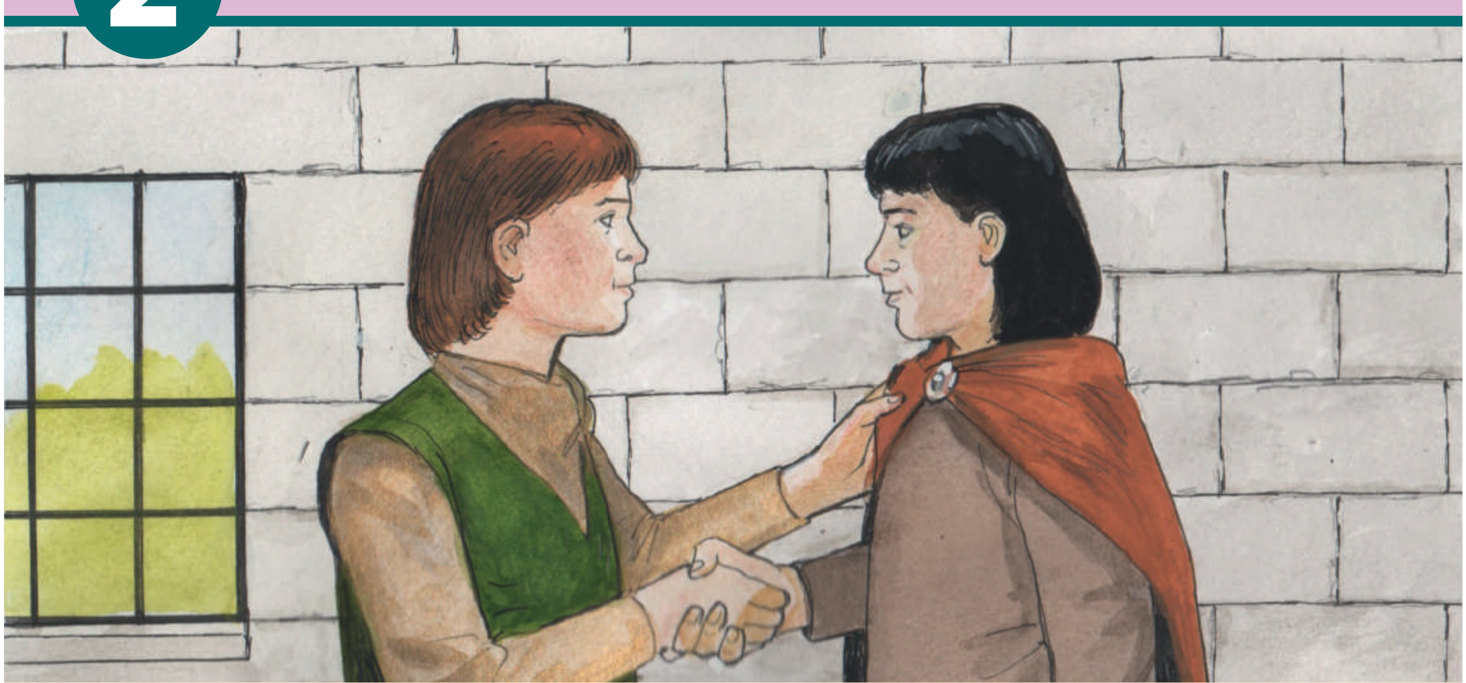

GLOUCESTER: Are you sure the writing is your brother's?

EDMUND: Yes, it is his handwriting, father.

GLOUCESTER: Has he ever talked to you about this before?

2 Lesson 5

EDMUND: No, never. But I've often heard him say that when a son becomes an adult, he should be given some of his father's income.

GLOUCESTER: Oh, what a cruel son! Go and find him, Edmund. Where is he?

EDMUND: I don't know, father. Please, don't be angry with my brother. Let's find out what he meant, then you can decide what to do. I'm sure he wrote this to test my love and loyalty to you, and for nothing more dangerous than that.

GLOUCESTER: Do you really think so?

EDMUND: Yes. Listen, I have a plan. I'll hide you somewhere tonight. I'll discuss it with my brother and you can listen to our conversation. Then you'll know what he really thinks.

GLOUCESTER: My son cannot be so cruel to a father who loves him so much. Edmund, find Edgar and make him talk to you. I want to know the truth.

EDMUND: I'll go and find him immediately.

GLOUCESTER: Find him, Edmund, and be careful. (to himself) What is happening? I cannot believe that Kent has been sent away! He is an honest man. It is all too strange.

[Gloucester exits*. Edgar enters.]*

EDMUND: Ah, Edgar. There you are. How are you? When did you last see our father?

EDGAR: I am well, Edmund. I saw our father last night.

EDMUND: And did you talk to him?

EDGAR: Yes, we spent two hours together.

EDMUND: Did you say anything unkind to him? He's very angry with you at the moment. Please don't go near him until he's less angry.

EDGAR: Really? Then somebody has lied about me.

EDMUND: That's what I'm worried about. Stay with me for now. I'll take you to see our father when he feels better. Here's my key. Oh, and if you go out, take your sword.

EDGAR: My sword? But why?

EDMUND: That's the best advice I can give you. Please, go quickly!

[Edgar exits.]

EDMUND: My brother and father trust me, which makes them easy to deceive. I need these two fools to make my plan work. If I can't get some land in the correct way, I'll have to be clever to get it.

[Edmund exits.]

The future of food

OBJECTIVES

Reading Two articles about future sources of food and more sustainable farming
Writing Essay with proposals for how to feed people more sustainably in the future; writing a summary
Listening An interview with an expert on sustainable farming
Speaking Speculating about the future
Language Will / Be going to; Future continuous

Before you start

Look at the pictures and think about a farm you have seen or visited.

- What was growing there?
- What animals were there?

Reading

1 Work in pairs. Do you think there will be more (↑) or less (↓) of each thing in the future?

More or less?
1 Farms keeping livestock for meat production
2 Innovations like technology to dry land that is very wet
3 Variety in the sources of our food
4 Scientists creating a variety of new food
5 Using chemicals to help crops grow faster
6 Farmers using electric vehicles

2 Read two articles about the future of farming. Choose the correct title for each article. There is one title that you don't need.

a Changes in agriculture that can save the land
b New solutions for our growing world
c Four ways that farmers damage the Earth

1) ……………………………………

According to the United Nations, there will be almost 10 billion people in the world by 2050. As a result, we will have to increase our food production by about 70 percent. However, farmers do not have space to keep more livestock and grow more crops. Instead, they'll need to look for more sustainable solutions and this will involve producing a wider variety of food.

How would you feel about eating a burger that was grown in a laboratory? Scientists think that it could be more sustainable than keeping livestock. Some of the people who have eaten these burgers say that they can't tell the difference between the new burgers and real meat.

Researchers from the United Nations (UN) have found that some kinds of agriculture are seriously damaging the land. This is not sustainable. If farming continues to cause so much damage, there won't be enough land left for food production. In Europe, most of the damage is due to farmers using too many chemicals, so they will need to find new ways to help their crops grow without having to use so many chemicals. In southern Africa, the problem is that there is too much rain in the summer. In the future, we can expect that farmers in southern Africa will be using innovations in technology to remove water from the land and use it elsewhere.

3 Read the two articles again. Are these statements true (T), false (F) or not included (NI)?

1 Both articles describe technological solutions to future food problems. T
2 According to scientists, rising sea levels will change how we grow food. ☐
3 The UN believes that agriculture always has a negative effect on the climate. ☐
4 Both articles describe the damage done to the environment by livestock. ☐
5 The first article mentions the taste of food made in a laboratory. ☐

4 Look at the articles again. Complete the table with the correct information.

Future forms for prediction will / be going to Use will + infinitive for predictions without evidence, and future facts. Use be going to + infinitive for predictions with evidence, plans and intentions. For example:

There will be even less rainfall on the island in the next few years.

The area of rainforest is going to decrease because farmers continue damaging them to get more crops.

will + be + -ing (future continuous)*

Use the future continuous to:

- talk about an activity that will be happening at a specific period of time in the future: In today's show, I'll be talking to my guest, Dr Sarita Parker.
- talk about a future activity that will only happen for a short time in the future: My organisation will be running an education programme next month.
- talk about an activity that will start before another activity in the future: More farmers will be using sustainable techniques and therefore farming will improve.

Reading

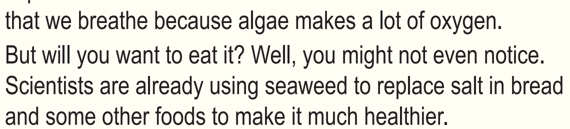

2 Read the text below and then choose the best summary of it. Compare your answers in pairs.

Is algae the future of food?

We will need to find sustainable sources of food in the future because there will be more people to feed and many places will be too hot and dry for agriculture. So, why don't we think about farms in the sea?

Algae are plants that grow very quickly in water and wet places. They are eaten by everything from the smallest fish to giant whales. Some kinds of algae are called seaweed, and this is a very popular food in China and Japan.

Algae is very healthy and some scientists believe that a lot more people will be eating it in the future. They hope that farmers won't need to damage the environment, because they will be growing our food in the ocean. In fact, scientists think that growing algae will help to clean the sea and improve the air that we breathe because algae makes a lot of oxygen.

But will you want to eat it? Well, you might not even notice. Scientists are already using seaweed to replace salt in bread and some other foods to make it much healthier.

A Seaweed might look boring, but some people enjoy eating it. Now the fashion for eating seaweed is getting more popular around the world.
B At the moment, most people don't know about eating algae, but this is likely to change in the future as we try to find more sustainable sources of food.
C Nobody really wants to eat algae because it's not tasty, but people will be eating algae in the future because it will be the only source of food.

Speaking

3 Search the internet for different sources of food. Work in groups. Discuss the questions.

- What unusual types of food would you like to try?
- What is the strangest thing you have ever eaten?
- Did you like it? Why/Why not?

The Earth's surface is heating up and soon there will be less land that farmers can use. — 3 ....
In the case of Africa, the continent could lose up to 18 percent of its farm land in the next fifty years. — 4 .... As a result, farmers will need to farm their land even more efficiently.

Due to the fact that there will be less land available for agriculture in the future, farmers will need to grow a greater variety of crops. — 5 .... Evidence suggests that keeping livestock will not be sustainable and we may start the production of new sources of food, like algae, instead.

In my view, farmers should see this is as a chance to try new things and to start using new technology, such as robots, on their farms. — 6 .... They should start doing this immediately so they're prepared for the future.

To conclude, agriculture is clearly going to change a lot over the next few decades and farmers will need to change the way they farm, too. — 7 ....

3 Lesson 5

Before you read

- What did King Lear tell Kent to do in Chapter 1?

Act I, Scene iii

[At the Duke of Albany's Palace. Goneril enters with her servant Oswald.]

GONERIL: Did my father, King Lear, hit my servant?

OSWALD: Yes, madam.

GONERIL: I must do something. His soldiers are starting to behave badly, and my father gets angry about everything. When he comes here, I won't speak to him. I'll tell him that I am ill.

OSWALD: He's coming, madam; I can hear him.

GONERIL: Tell the other servants not to do what he asks them. If he's unhappy, he can stay with my sister. The foolish old man still wants to have the power that he's given away!

OSWALD: Yes, madam.

GONERIL: I'll write to my sister immediately and tell her my plans.

[She exits.]

Act I, Scene iv

[At the Duke of Albany's Palace. Kent enters in different clothes.]

KENT: I've disguised myself in different clothes, and I have changed how I usually speak, so I can help the man who told me to leave. I still love the King and I'll continue to work hard for him, but he won't know me.

[King Lear enters with soldiers and servants.]

KING LEAR: Get my dinner ready.

[A servant exits.]

[To Kent] Who are you?

KENT: I am a poor but honest man.

KING LEAR: What do you want?

KENT: I want to help you, sir.

KING LEAR: Do you know me?

KENT: No, sir; but I want to help you because I can see that you are an important man.

KING LEAR: What can you do?

KENT: I can give good and honest advice.

KING LEAR: Then follow me. You can be my servant.

[Oswald enters.]

You, where's my daughter?

OSWALD: I'm sorry, sir …

[He exits.]

KING LEAR: What did the man say? Call him back.

SOLDIER: He said that your daughter wasn't well.

KING LEAR: Why didn't he come back when I called him?

SOLDIER: Your majesty, he was very rude. I don't know what the problem is; but the servants, the Duke and your daughter are all being very unkind to you.

KING LEAR: I've noticed that too. But where's my Fool? I haven't seen him for two days.

SOLDIER: He has been very unhappy since Cordelia went to France.

KING LEAR: Don't say her name to me! Go and tell Goneril that I want to speak to her.

[The soldier exits. Oswald and the Fool enter.]

Oh, you, come here! Who am I?

OSWALD: My lady's father.

KING LEAR: My lady's father? How rude!

[King Lear hits him.]

OSWALD: Don't hit me, my lord.

KENT: [Hitting him.] Don't be rude to the King or I'll hit you, too!

KING LEAR: Thank you. You are a good man.

[Goneril enters.]

3 Lesson 5

KING LEAR: What's the matter, Goneril? Why are you holding your head?

FOOL: You should worry, old King, because you gave everything away, rather than worrying about her head. One day, you will want everything back.

GONERIL: Father, are you encouraging your men to behave badly? Your Fool says and does what he wants.

FOOL: Even a fool knows when the cart is pulling the horse.

KING LEAR: Does anyone here know who I am? Tell me!

GONERIL: You're old and you should be wise. But you're keeping a hundred soldiers here; they are noisy and rude. Please don't have so many soldiers, and only keep the men who can behave well.

KING LEAR: [angry] What did you say? Call my soldiers. You won't have any more trouble from me, because now I have only one daughter left.

[Albany enters and he is very surprised.]

[To the soldiers.] Prepare my horses.

ALBANY: Please, sir, wait.

KING LEAR: [To himself.] Oh, why was I angry with Cordelia? She was not as rude to me as Goneril. Why was I so foolish?

ALBANY: Your majesty, I don't know what's made you angry, but I'm not guilty.

KING LEAR: That might be true, but listen. If Goneril has a child one day, and the child is cruel to her, she will understand how I feel. Then she will have a taste of her own medicine.

[King Lear exits.]

ALBANY: What has happened, Goneril?

GONERIL: Nothing. Let him shout. He is a mad old man.

[King Lear enters again.]

KING LEAR: Goneril, you have told fifty of my soldiers to go!

ALBANY: What is the matter, sir?

KING LEAR: I'll tell you. [To Goneril.] I cannot believe that you have the power to make me so unhappy. But you have. I still have one daughter left, and I am sure she will be kind to me when she hears what you have done. She will not be happy with you!

[King Lear exits with Kent, and Attendants.]

GONERIL: Did you hear that, my husband?

ALBANY: You know how much I love you, Goneril, but …

GONERIL: Do not say more.

[To the Fool.] You, go.

[The Fool exits.]

GONERIL: Is it a good idea to let him keep a hundred soldiers to help him in his old age? They might attack us.

ALBANY: I think you are worrying too much.

GONERIL: It's better to worry and be safe. I've written to my sister Regan and told her everything. I'm not angry with you because you asked me to be kinder to my father, but you are being foolish.

ALBANY: Maybe you know more than I do, Goneril, but I think you are making problems rather than solving them.

[They exit.]

Before you start

Work in pairs. Discuss the questions.

1 Do you think that most people disagree with friends and family sometimes?

2 What can help people to stop disagreeing and be friendly again?

Vocabulary

Reading

3 Read this part of the play and match the characters with the things they do.

Albany   Goneril   Kent   King Lear   Oswald

1 This character tells the king not to be angry with him and then tells his wife not to worry about the king. ....

2 This character gets angry with his daughter when she tells him that he shouldn't keep so many soldiers. ....

3 This character disguises himself so he can continue to work for the king. ....

4 This character works for Goneril and tries to tell the king that he can't see her. ....

5 This character didn't want to see her father, but then she talks to him about the number of soldiers he has with him. ....

4 What do we learn about the characters in this part of the play? Choose the correct options.

1 Goneril feels guilty/worried because of the way her father is behaving.

2 Kent will/won't leave the king.

3 King Lear feels that Goneril knows/doesn't know how much she has hurt him.

4 Albany thinks that Goneril should worry more/less about her father.

Writing

5 Read the questions about what you think will happen next in the play. Write your answers in your notebook.

1 Will King Lear's soldiers hurt Goneril and Albany?

2 Will King Lear get angry with his other daughter, Regan, as well?

3 Will Kent continue to help King Lear as his servant?

REVISION

R1 Lesson 1

Look at the photos.

- Which sport does each athlete do?
- What kind of food do you think each athlete needs to eat?
- What kind of food do you think each athlete needs to avoid?

B

Amr

Reading

1 Read both texts and answer these questions.

1 Who eats the largest amount of food?
2 Who eats the widest variety of food?
3 Who is the most interested in not getting ill?
4 Who has to eat more food before an important competition?

Kareem
I'm a runner who regularly runs very long distances. I need to eat large amounts of pasta, fruit, potatoes and other vegetables so I have enough energy to run for 30 or 40 kilometres each day. I also need to eat a lot of different foods that will make me stronger, such as meat, fish and eggs. I drink a lot of orange juice to boost my immune system, which means that I'm less likely to get ill and have to stop training. I usually prepare my own food at home but when I want to eat out with my friends or family, I usually go to an Italian restaurant!

Amr
I'm a boxer, so I need to eat larger amounts of food than other athletes. When I started boxing, I started eating in a different way. Instead of three large meals a day, I usually eat six smaller meals, but I don't eat a wide variety of food. I usually eat eggs or white meat, like chicken, for almost every meal. Eating like this helps me to be stronger than the people I fight, which means I'm less likely to be injured. Before a big fight, I have to do a lot of training and I eat as much as possible, without eating unhealthy, fatty food, such as cakes and chocolate.

2 Read the texts again. Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

1 Kareem needs energy from his food so he can walk as far as possible. F
2 Kareem's diet makes his immune system stronger. ....
3 Kareem sometimes goes out to eat with his friends or family. ....
4 Amr had to change the way he ate when he became a boxer. ....
5 Amr eats three large meals a day every day. ....
6 The way Amr eats means that he's less likely to get hurt. ....

Vocabulary

3 Complete the sentences with these words from the text.

amount boost injured ~~prepare~~ variety

1 I'm going to help my parents to prepare our meals so I can learn how to cook.
2 Only eat a small .... of food before you do sports or exercise.
3 Fresh fruit can .... your immune system so you're less likely to get ill.
4 Some athletes, like boxers, can get .... when they do their sport.
5 Eat a wide .... of food instead of the same type of food every day.

Before you start

Look at the photos. What can you do to help in these situations?

Listening

1 Read this sentence from a radio interview with a teenage girl. What is the name for the activity the girl does in her free time?

In my free time, I'm learning to help people who are ill or who have had an accident.

1.16 2 Listen to the radio interview and check your answer to Exercise 1.

1.17 3 Listen again and answer the questions.

1 Where is Mariam doing her course?
Mariam is doing her course at a sports centre.

2 What will Mariam get after she's completed fifty hours of lessons?
....

3 What techniques is Mariam learning at the start of her first course?
....

4 What doesn't Mariam need to learn at the moment?

5 What are the two reasons Mariam gives for enjoying the course.
....

1.18 4 Listen again. Choose the phrases you hear.

1 I must / have to go to at least fifty hours of lessons.
2 Then I'll get / I'll be getting my first certificate.
3 At the start, you need to / don't need to learn simple things like how to put a bandage on someone.
4 You have to / don't have to know how to perform CPR, for example.
5 I'm sure I'll take / I'll be taking courses for the next few years so I can learn as much as possible.
6 You mustn't / don't need to sit at a desk and read books to learn.

- What have you persuaded someone to do?

Reading

1 Read the email quickly. What does Hadeer want to persuade Aya to do?

To: Aya@mail.com
From: Hadeer@mail.com

Hi Aya,

How are you today?

I think it's great that you're going to start cooking healthier food. I'm sure it will give you more energy and make you feel a lot better. I'd also like to learn how to cook meals that are healthier than the fast food that I usually eat.

Do you want to do a cooking course with me so we can learn together? There's a new course that's going to start in two weeks' time at the local college. It's every Tuesday evening from 6 pm to 8 pm. And it's only for teenagers!

You don't need to go to the college to register, you can do it on their website. Just search for the cooking courses and it's the first course you'll see. I can do the course on my own if you can't make it, but it would be a lot more fun to learn with a friend.

Talk to you soon!

Hadeer

2 Read the email again. Answer the questions.

1 What benefits of cooking healthier food does Hadeer mention?
Hadeer mentions feeling better.

2 What type of food does Hadeer regularly eat?
....

3 Where will the course take place?
....

4 When will the course take place?
....

5 Who can take part in the course?

6 Where can people register for the course?
....

7 The underlined words mean:
A Hadeer can do the course.
B Hadeer can't do the course.
C Hadeer can't finish the course.

8 Think of other ways to get information on how to cook healthier food.

Speaking

3 Work in pairs. Discuss the questions.

- How often do you cook?
- What do you usually cook?
- Would you like to get better at cooking, for example by taking part in a cooking course?

4 Use the internet or a library to find examples of recipes for meals that young people would like and are easy to cook.

For any readers who can't understand the language of text messaging, the translation is: Please read this article as soon as possible. It's great. I hope you like it.

In text messages, abbreviations, emojis and numbers are all used to make communication quicker. The language of text messages doesn't require correct spelling, or difficult grammar and punctuation.

Messaging language is appearing in everyday English more often. When people write emails, many of them use a lot of abbreviations and emojis 😛. Some people use less punctuation, but others use more than they need!!!!!!!

So, is messaging language damaging English? Messaging language may be fun to use with friends, but it isn't suitable in formal emails. And now teachers are worried that some teenagers are no longer able to speak or write using English correctly.

However, some linguists suggest that the people who use messaging language are actually language innovators, introducing new ideas into English. They argue that messaging language is quick, short and communicates a lot in a small space.

Whether or not you like messaging language, English is continuing to change. Perhaps it would be a good idea to learn some of the basic abbreviations so you can enjoy talking to your friends with fun, short messages!

4 Read the article again and answer these questions.

could / should have + past participle

Use could have + past participle

- to say that something was possible in the past, or someone had the ability to do something. She could have called and spoken to Mona. What could she have said to her friend?

Use couldn't have + past participle

- to say that something wasn't possible in the past. She couldn't have been at the supermarket at 8.00, because he was in the café.

Use should have + past participle

- to talk about a past action that was a better choice, but didn't happen: You should have read that valuable book.
- to talk about regret in the past She should have put her phone down. Should you have called your grandparents yesterday?

Use shouldn't have + past participle

- to say that something in the past wasn't a good idea. She shouldn't have got upset.

Note: should / shouldn't have + past participle means the same as ought / ought not to have + past participle.

SKILLS FOR LIFE

Always tell someone if you are worried about something you have received on your phone. Don't reply to a message if you feel uncomfortable.

Speaking

4 Lesson 3

Before you start

- Why do you think that we create new words?
- Look at the picture. Do you know why this person is famous?

To be, or not to be

Reading

1 Read the article and check your answers.

2 Read the article again. Which statement is correct?

A Shakespeare wrote the first English dictionary.
B Shakespeare didn't believe that the English language should change.
C Shakespeare changed the English language.

Shakespeare and the English language

Language is always changing, and new words are created all the time. We need new words to describe new technology, ideas and situations. For example, before people took photos of themselves on their phones, we didn't need a word for that. But when everyone started doing it, the word 'selfie' became very useful, and it was added to dictionaries in 2013. Many famous dictionaries add new words every year, and sometimes they remove words and phrases that we don't use anymore.

Shakespeare was a great innovator with language, and he added more words and phrases into the English language than anyone else. He made new words by changing verbs into adjectives, changing nouns into verbs, and connecting words to make new words. He also added prefixes and suffixes, for example, he created 'uncomfortable' from 'comfortable'.

Today the language that Shakespeare used can sound difficult, but he was writing in a way that made his stories easy for people to understand at that time.

Like messaging language, Shakespeare made new words from other words that everyone already knew. Then he used his words to describe the things that people most wanted to talk about.

3 Work in pairs. How many words can you make using prefixes, suffixes and the verbs below? Check your answers in a dictionary.

mis- re- un- | -able -er -less

care	carer, careless
do	....
read	....
understand	....
use	....
write	....

4 Work in pairs. Answer the questions. Which prefix

1 gives a word the opposite meaning? ....
2 means that something happens again? ....
3 means that something happens in the wrong way? ....

Which suffix ...

4 makes the noun for a person? ....
5 means possible? ....
6 means without? ....

REMEMBER!

Prefixes and suffixes
We put prefixes at the beginning of words and suffixes at the end to change the meaning of these words.

Speaking

5 Read the statement and discuss the following:

Messaging is having a negative effect on modern society.

- Decide if you agree or disagree with the statement. Make notes to support your opinion.
- In groups, have a debate about the effects of messaging on modern society.

WORKBOOK PAGE 26

Before you start

- What is a blog?
- Do you read any blogs? If so, what are they about?

Listening

1.21 1 Listen to some tips on how to write a successful blog post. Take notes as you listen.

2 Work with a partner. Use your notes to decide if these sentences are true (T) or false (F).

1. You should write your headline after you have written the blog post. F
2. You should include a question in your introduction. ☐
3. The main section of your blog post should include one very long paragraph. ☐
4. You shouldn't include new information in your conclusion. ☐
5. If a friend reads your blog post, you don't have to check it yourself. ☐

3 Read the blog post. Which of these options is the best summary of the topic?

A why emojis are not suitable for young children
B children learning how to message
C children using emojis to learn communication

4 Label the parts of a blog post in the text.

A conclusion B headline
C introduction D main section

PROJECT

Find information on the internet about mobile phone usage. Try to answer these questions:

- Why do people think that smartphones are important?
- How long do people spend using their mobile phones?
- What do people use their phones for?
- Who uses their phone more, older people or younger people?

☐ Emoji fun!

☐ Yesterday, my four-year-old sister sent her grandparents some text messages from my phone. The problem is, there are no words, just a long line of emojis. This is confusing because our grandparents think the messages are from me! Should I have taken the phone away from my sister?

☐ When a child begins to learn how to speak, they first make different sounds. It seems that children do the same with messaging. They use emojis rather than proper words to communicate what they want to say.

But is this a good thing? Yes! Young children are learning to communicate. With text messages, children can receive and read replies which are written just for them. I'm sure this will make them feel special and they will want to communicate more.

☐ So, instead of taking phones away from children, perhaps we should give them our phones more often and say, "Send your grandparents a message".

Writing

5 Write a blog post on the topic of mobile phone use and its effects today. Consider the following points:

- What is a healthy amount of time to spend using your phone?
- What are the effects of spending too much time on your phone?
- What solutions or advice can you offer your reader on how to use their mobile phone in the most positive way?

4 Lesson 5

Before you read

- What did Edmund show his father Gloucester in Act I?

Act II, Scene i

[In the Castle of the Duke of Gloucester. Edmund enters.]

EDMUND: [To himself.] So, I hear that the Duke of Cornwall is coming here tonight. That's good! It will help my plan a lot. My father has a guard ready to arrest my brother. But there's one more thing I should do first. Here's Edgar.

[Edgar enters.]

Brother, can we talk? Our father's coming here soon, so you must go! He knows you are hiding here. But first, we must pretend to fight. Pick up your sword. Quickly, before our father gets here. Now run from here, brother.

[Calls out.] Help me!

[To his brother again.] Goodbye, Edgar.

[Edgar exits.]

[To himself.] If there's some blood on me, people will think I've been in a fight. [He cuts his arm.]

Father, father! Stop him, stop him! Help!

[Gloucester enters with servants.]

EDMUND: Look, at my arm, father, I'm injured.

GLOUCESTER: What happened? Where's Edgar?

EDMUND: He ran that way. When I refused his plan …

GLOUCESTER: You there, follow him!

[Some servants exit.]

What plan, Edmund?

EDMUND: His plan is to kill you, father. I told him that I loved you. Finally, when he understood that I didn't want to help with his terrible plan, he cut my arm with his sword. Then he saw that I was ready to fight him, and he quickly ran away.

GLOUCESTER: He'll not run very far. If he stays in this country, we'll soon find him. Then we'll arrest him. The Duke of Cornwall is coming here tonight. I will tell him that there's a reward for any man who finds Edgar. And anyone who hides him will be arrested, too.

EDMUND: Father, I tried to persuade Edgar to stop his plan, but he wanted to continue with it. I told him that I would tell you all about it.

"Do you think anyone will believe you?" Edgar said. "No. I'll say that it was all your idea. They know that you will profit most if father dies, not me."

GLOUCESTER: This is terrible! It is a stab in the back. I'll stop people from leaving England's ports; Edgar won't leave the country. Thank you, my loving son Edmund. Now I will do everything to help you. You will inherit all my land.

[The Duke of Cornwall enters with his wife Regan and servants.]

CORNWALL: Gloucester, how are you, my friend? Since I've arrived here, I've heard some strange news.

REGAN: If it is true, it is terrible news!

GLOUCESTER: Oh Regan, my heart is broken!

REGAN: Did your son really try to kill you? Your son Edgar?

GLOUCESTER: Yes, it's true! I wish it were different.

REGAN: I know Edgar spent time with my father's soldiers.

EDMUND: That's correct, madam, he spent some time with them.

REGAN: Then the soldiers have given him the idea of plotting against his father, trying to kill him, so that he can use his father's money. I've just had a message from my sister Goneril about the soldiers. She has warned me to be careful of them. If they come to my house, I won't be there.

CORNWALL: Edmund, I hear that you've been a good son to your father.

EDMUND: It was my duty, sir.

GLOUCESTER: Edmund told me of Edgar's plan, and he got this cut on his arm when he tried to stop him.

CORNWALL: Is anyone following Edgar?

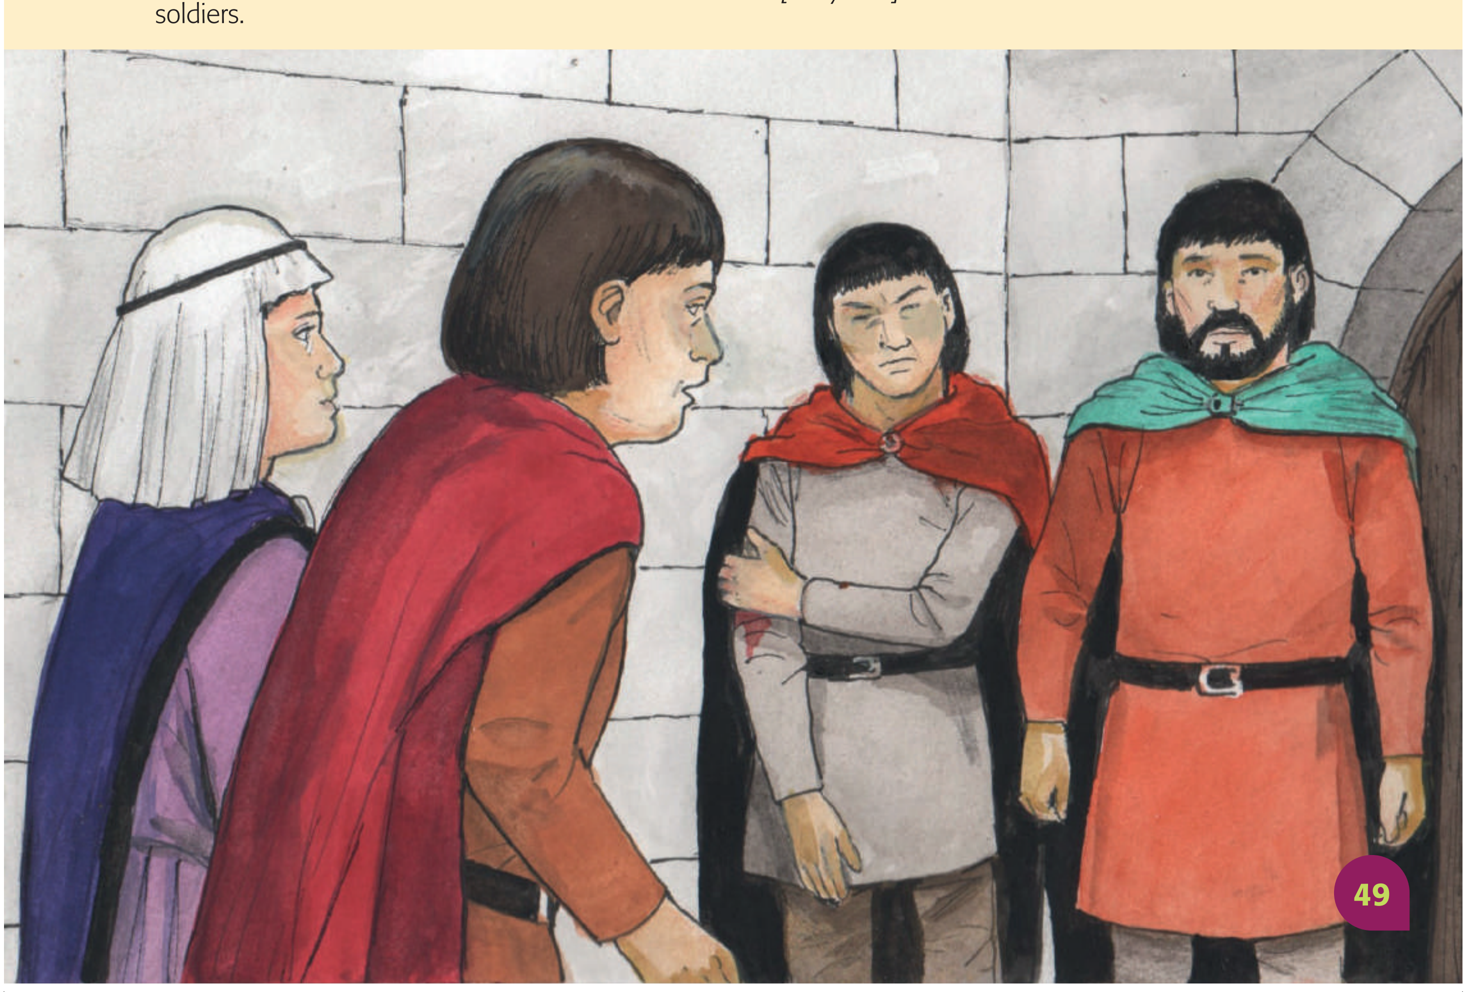

GLOUCESTER: Yes, I've sent some guards.

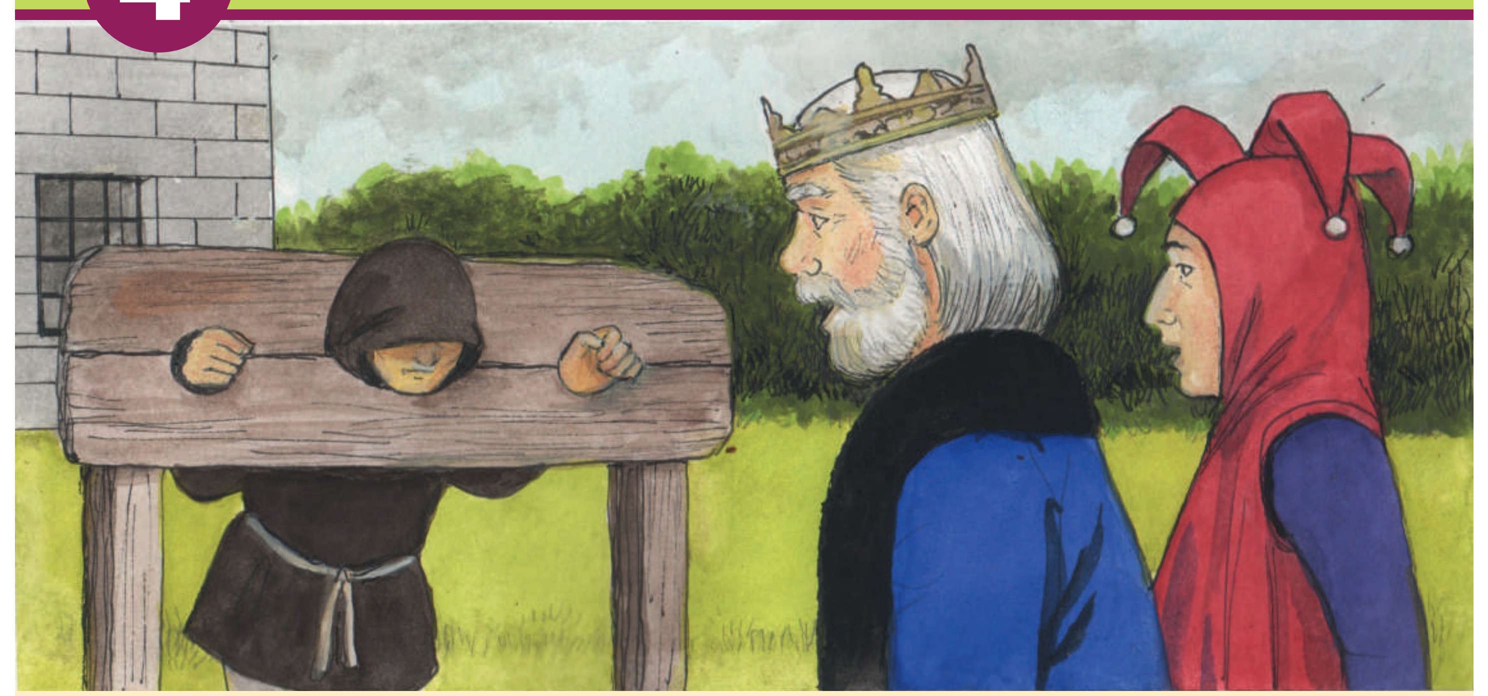

CORNWALL: The guards must arrest him. Edmund, I'd like you to work for me. I need men like you that I can trust.

EDMUND: I'd be happy to help you, sir.

GLOUCESTER: I thank you, Cornwall

[They exit.]

Act II, Scene ii

[In the countryside. Edgar enters.]

EDGAR: I've heard people say that I'm guilty! But I was not caught, because I hid in this old tree. It's not safe for me to go to any port now. Guards are looking for me. So I must disguise myself as a beggar. I will change my clothes and make my face and hair look dirty.

[He changes his clothes.]

I'll wear these clothes of a poor man, and live outside under the rain. Nobody will see Edgar any more. From now, I'll call myself Poor Tom.

[Edgar exits.]

[Enter, Lear, Fool and Knight. Kent is in the stocks.]

KENT: Good morning, my lord.

KING LEAR: [Looks in disbelief at Kent in the stocks.] What has happened? Who did this to you?

KENT: It was your daughter Regan and her husband Cornwall, sir.

KING LEAR: But you are working for the King! They should not do this to you! This is terrible. Where's my daughter?

[King Lear exits.]

KENT: Fool, why has the King got so few soldiers now?

FOOL: He has no money, so he has fewer people to help him. But I'll be faithful to him; the Fool will always stay, and let the wise men run away.

[King Lear and Gloucester enter together.]

KING LEAR: Why don't they want to speak to me? You say they are sick? They are tired? That's no answer.

GLOUCESTER: I'm sorry, your majesty, but you know that the Duke of Cornwall easily feels angry. He won't change his mind.

KING LEAR: What? He's angry! Well, I'm angry, too!

[He sees Kent in the stocks again.]

Why is he sitting in the stocks? Go and tell the Duke of Cornwall and his wife that I want to speak to them, now!

[Gloucester exits.]

KING LEAR: Oh, my heart, my unhappy heart!

[Cornwall, Regan, Gloucester and Servants enter.]

REGAN: Father, I'm pleased to see you.

KING LEAR: My dear daughter Regan, your sister is nothing to me. Oh Regan, she's been so cruel to me! You won't believe how badly she has behaved.

REGAN: I don't think my sister could be unkind to you. If she has stopped your badly behaved soldiers, she has only done it to help you.

KING LEAR: I'm very angry with her!

REGAN: Father, please go back to my sister's house; you're the one who is wrong, not my good sister Goneril.

Before you start

Go back and skim the play. Discuss these questions in pairs.

1 Why does Edmund cut his own arm?

Lesson 1

Being smart online

OBJECTIVES

Reading An article about an online video channel; An article about how to use the internet for research Writing An email and an essay on how to use social media sensibly.
Listening Two boys discussing how to use social media; Five teenagers talking about the effects of the internet on young people
Speaking A presentation
Language seems to, (be) meant to, (be) supposed to Life Skills Critical Thinking; Resilience

Before you start

- Do you use the internet to help you learn English?
- How can it be helpful?
- How do you prefer to study and why?

Reading

1 Read the advice about doing online research. Which of the following is not mentioned?

1 How to ask questions in online discussions.
2 How to find reliable and useful information.
3 How to save web pages so you can read them again later.

2 Find these words and phrases in the text. In pairs, decide what the meaning is and write a definition for each. Check your answers in a dictionary.

1 consult (v) ....

2 reliable (adj) ....

....

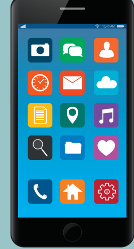

3 update (v) ....

4 up-to-date (adj) ....

Doing research online

Your teacher has given you a homework task. Where do you start your research? The internet is very useful with lots of information, but how do you avoid spending hours reading unhelpful websites? Read on to find out how to use the internet effectively.

1 Look for websites by people, companies or universities, who have experience in or knowledge of the topic you are researching. If you know who wrote the website, try to find out more about their experience.

2 Think about who has written the website. Is it a company that may be trying to sell you something?

3 Check if the website is up-to-date. Is the information still reliable and useful? When was it updated?

4 Always consult more than one website. The advantage of looking at few different sites is that you can check the information and you may find extra facts.

5 What does the website look like? If it is badly designed and is full of grammar and spelling mistakes, then it is probably not very reliable.

6 Websites that have named their sources are usually more reliable and useful than sites that do not name their sources.

7 Save the URL (Uniform Resource Locator) of any useful pages or images so you can find them easily.

3 Read the article again. Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

1 The internet is a wonderful resource for research. T
2 A website written by a company might be trying to sell something. ☐
3 You only need to look at one website to do research. ☐
4 It is not important if a website has spelling and grammar mistakes. ☐
5 You should check whether a website says where it got information. ☐

4 Discuss in pairs. Was this article helpful? Why?

Vocabulary

5 We use up and down in lots of words and phrases to do with technology and the internet. Match the words and phrases in the box with their definitions.

~~download~~ take down update upgrade upload

1 download............: to move files from the internet to a phone, tablet or computer
2 ....: to improve or make more efficient
3 ....: to make something more modern and relevant by adding new information
4 ....: to move files from a computer, phone or camera to the internet
5 ....: to take something that you have posted online off the internet

Research

Do research online. Find:

- 3 useful websites about Egyptian history
- 3 useful websites about English grammar
- 3 useful websites about science and technology

Writing

6 Discuss with a partner. How is writing an email to a friend different from writing to someone you don't know? Think about:

- tone
- how you start and end each email
- grammar and punctuation

7 Read this email from your friend. Then write an email in response explaining how you can research effectively.

Hi!

Can you help me? I'm trying to do a history essay, but I've spent about 20 hours reading different websites and blogs, and now I've got pages and pages of notes. But I'm really confused. I don't know which sites are good and which aren't – and they all say different things! And now I've forgotten how I found a really good site that I looked at earlier.

Help!!!!!!

Thanks,

Nagwa

5 Lesson 2

Before you start

- Look at the photo. What do you think the icons and numbers describe?
- Name three things you have done online this week.

FOCUS ON VOCABULARY

Check the meanings of these words in a dictionary.

banner advert   cookies search result   sponsored advert

REMEMBER!

Skim and scan: skills for research

Skim a text to see what it is about. Read the title, look at any pictures and read the text quickly to understand the general meaning. Do not worry about words you don't know.

Scan a text for specific information. Look for keywords to find the information you need.

Reading

1 Read the article quickly. Which is the best summary?

A Targeted adverts can be fun and interesting.
B We need to think carefully about targeted adverts.
C Targeted adverts can save time.

Targeted advertising

Our computers and smartphones keep small pieces of information called cookies, which tell websites where we've been online and what we were looking at. Cookies are meant to make it easier for us to find things that interest us, but they also help advertisers to sell things to us. So, when we see an advert for something that seems to be exactly what we want, it is because advertisers know what we like. This kind of advertising is called targeted advertising.

Sometimes advertisers know where you like to go and when you like to do things, so they can advertise to you when you are most interested. For example, they advertise places to eat when you're hungry. They can also send adverts to your friends at the same time if they think you'll go together.

Sometimes it's easy to see that something is an advert, like those large banner adverts that always seem to appear on websites when you're trying to read. And there are adverts that seem to appear in the strangest places, like the small sponsored adverts that you find in search results.

Adverts are supposed to be honest, but we must be careful. When you see an advert online, think about why you might be seeing it and whether you can believe what it says.

2 Underline keywords in these questions. Then scan the article and find the answers.

1 What kind of information do our smartphones keep?
Cookies

2 How do cookies help advertisers?

3 When do advertisers tell you about places to eat?
....

4 What kind of advert is easy to recognise?

5 Where can you find small sponsored adverts?
....

6 What two questions to we need to ask about online adverts?
....?

Language

3 Choose the correct answer.

1 Nabil is supposed to cook/cooking dinner.
2 I seem being/to be the first student to arrive at school today.
3 It didn't suppose/wasn't supposed to snow last week.
4 Maya meant to call/calling you.
5 Amr seems have/to be having a good day.
6 The train is meant leave/to leave at 9 o'clock.
7 My teacher seemed/meant to be happy with my work.

4 Answer the questions using seem to, meant to and supposed to.

1 What is the meeting meant to be about?
2 What are you supposed to do this week?
3 Think about a book you are reading or a TV series you are watching. What are the characters like? What do they seem to be doing?

FOCUS ON LANGUAGE

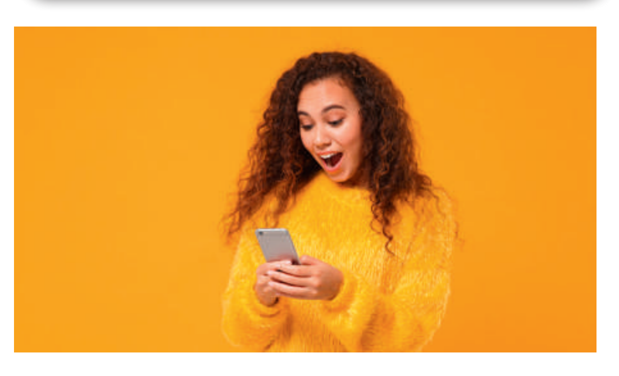

LANGUAGE REVIEW PAGE 82

seem to, (be) meant to, (be) supposed to Use seem to

- to talk about how something or someone appears to be.
  Taha seems to like his new laptop.
  They seem to be spending a nice time in Alexandria.

Use (be) meant to
- to talk about what the purpose or truth of something should be.
  School is meant to be educational.

Use (be) supposed to
- to talk about obligation. I'm supposed to cook dinner tonight.
- to talk about what something or someone is likely or expected to do or be.
  It is supposed to rain this afternoon.

Speaking

5 In small groups, read and discuss this statement.

Many people are worried about targeted advertising, but it can be very useful.

How is targeted advertising supposed to help us?
Why does targeted advertising seem to worry so many people?

1 I believe you should put a nice picture of yourself in your ......profile...... .
2 I disagree. .... tell you more about what someone thinks or feels.
3 In my opinion, it's a bad idea to include your .... because it shows your age.
4 Did you know that 50% of teens have experienced bad .... on social media?
5 You have to be .... on social media if you want to enjoy it safely.

1.24 2 Listen to Hamdi and Khaled discussing how to use social media. Check your answers to Exercise 1.

3 Read statements 1–5 in Exercise 1 again. Which are facts and which are opinions? Write F or O below.

1 ...O... 2 .... 3 ....
4 .... 5 ....

Speaking

4 Discuss in pairs.

1 Do you agree or disagree with each of the opinions from Exercise 1? Give your reasons.

Try to use some of these phrases:
I think … In my opinion, …
I agree/disagree because … I believe …
I see your point, but … Did you know that …?

Video

In my opinion, you shouldn't put your year of birth on your profile on social media because it can be dangerous.

5 Make a list of the top five things you would include in a guide to using social media well.

Using social media well
1. ....
2. ....
3. ....
4. ....
5. ....

6 Compare your list with another pair's. Which list is the most useful and why?

WORKBOOK PAGE 32

Before you start

- In groups, brainstorm the effects that the internet can have on young people's lives.
- How many positive and how many negative effects did you write?
- Compare your list with another group's list. How many different effects did the other group write? Are they mainly positive or negative?

Effects of the internet on young people's lives.

It can help young people learn new things.

Listening

1.25 1 Listen to five young people talking about the effects of the internet. Match each one with the effect they talk about.

1 Dalida
2 Injy
3 Ayman
4 Osama
5 Radwa

a It makes homework easier.
b It entertains people.
c It helps you get support from people with similar interests and hobbies, and develop your own skills.
d It can be fun, but it also makes people worry that their lives are not as exciting as other people's lives.
e It causes arguments with parents.

Speaking

2 In pairs, discuss the effects mentioned in Exercise 1. Rank them in the order that you think are most important. 1 = most important and 5 = least important. Explain why.

3 Make a presentation about the effects the internet can have on young people's lives. Include both positive and negative effects.

4 Give your presentation to your group or class.

Writing

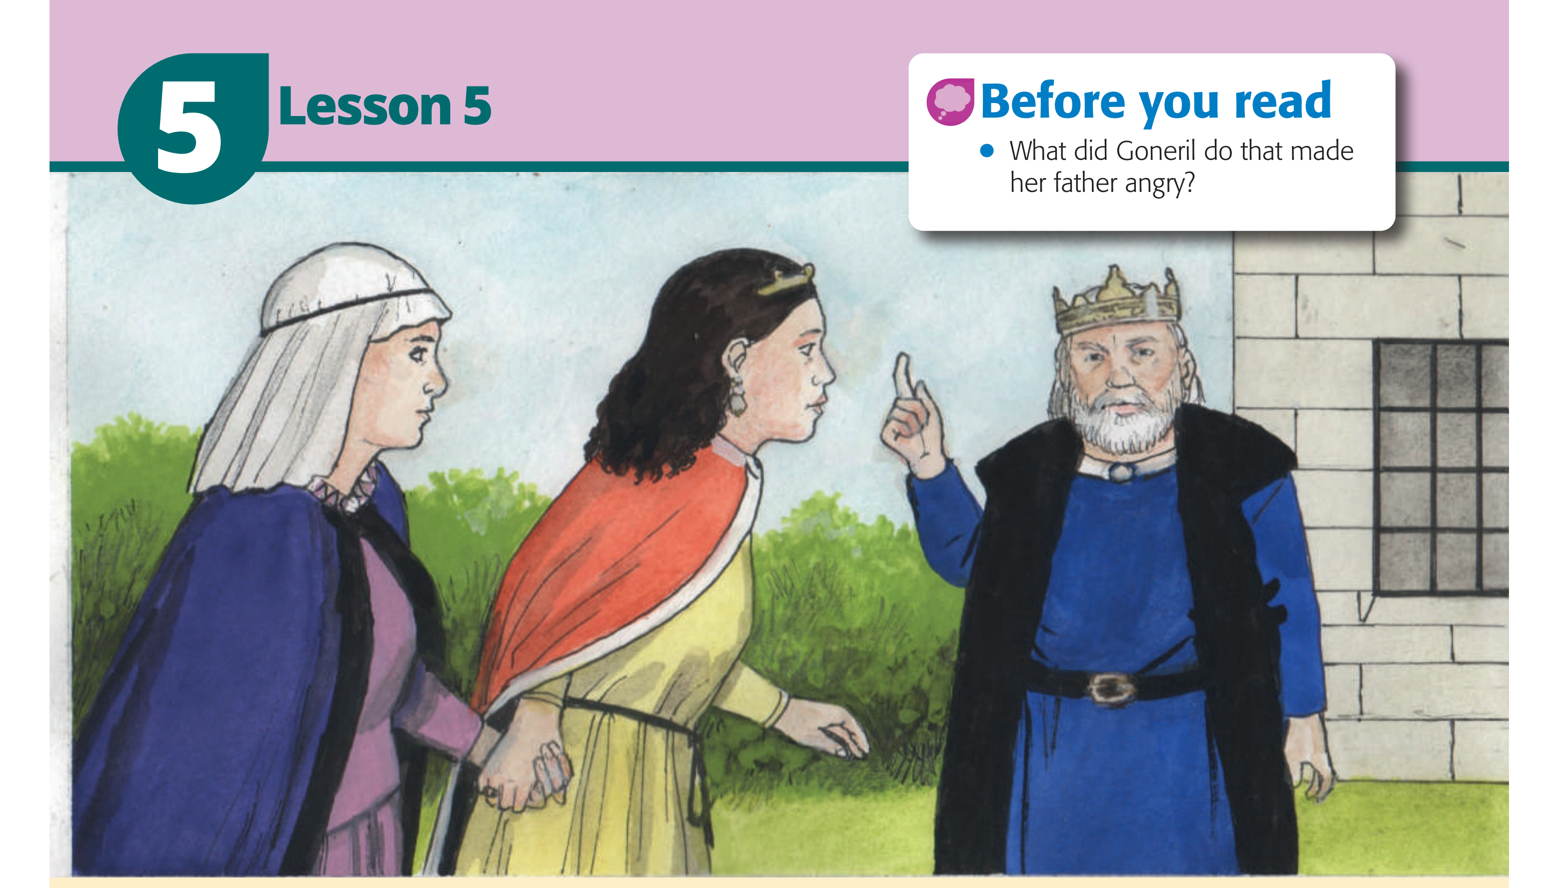

5 Work in groups. Make a set of rules for young people to follow to avoid the negative effects of using social media.

5 Lesson 5

Before you read

- What did Goneril do that made her father angry?

Act II, Scene iii

[In the countryside.]

KING LEAR: Regan, I will not stay with your sister Goneril. Please, give me clothes, food and a bed. Remember, I am old.

REGAN: Please, Father! Go back and stay with my sister.

KING LEAR: Never, Regan! She's told half of my soldiers to leave! She has been cruel and rude to me! I want rain to always fall on her head!

REGAN: You'll want the same to happen to me soon.

KING LEAR: No, Regan, I'll never say bad things about you. Goneril's eyes are cruel, but yours are kind. You would never turn your back on me. And you'd not lock me out of your house. You understand how a daughter should help her father. You haven't forgotten that I've given you half of my kingdom.

REGAN: Father, why are you unhappy?

CORNWALL: Listen! Who's coming?

REGAN: It's my sister. She said in her letter that she would come soon.

[Goneril enters with Oswald.]

KING LEAR: Who put my servant in the stocks? Regan, I hope that you didn't know about this.

[To Goneril.] You shouldn't want to look at me. Oh Regan, why are you holding her hand?

GONERIL: Why shouldn't she hold my hand, Father? What have I done wrong?

KING LEAR: Oh, how unhappy you've made me. You're too cruel! Why won't you apologise to me? And why is my servant in the stocks?

CORNWALL: I put him there, sir, because he didn't behave well.

KING LEAR: You? Was it you?

REGAN: Please, Father, you're ill today. Stay with my sister until the end of the month. Then, if you ask half of your soldiers to leave, you can come and stay with me.

KING LEAR: Stay with her, and ask my soldiers to leave? No, I would rather sleep outside under the stars.

[To himself.] Return with Goneril? I would prefer to stand in front of the King of France and ask him for food. Go back with her? I would prefer to be the servant of this terrible man. [Points at Oswald.]

GONERIL: It's your choice, Father.

KING LEAR: Please, daughter, don't make me mad. I won't set eyes on you again, my child; goodbye. We won't meet any more. But you will soon feel bad about what you've done. I'll be patient for now, and I'll stay with Regan with my hundred soldiers.

REGAN: That is not possible. My home isn't ready for you. Listen to my sister. Are fifty soldiers not enough for you?

GONERIL: My servants could help you.

REGAN: Yes, why not, Father? We have enough servants. When you come to me (for now I see the danger of so many men), I ask you to bring just twenty-five soldiers. I won't have rooms for any more.

KING LEAR: But Regan, I gave you everything …

REGAN: And you gave it to me at the right time!

KING LEAR: I gave you enough to live well for all time! I asked for just one thing – to keep a hundred soldiers. Are you really asking me to come with just twenty-five, Regan?

REGAN: Don't talk to me any more about this.

KING LEAR: [To Goneril.] Then I'll go back with you. Your fifty soldiers is double her twenty-five, so you must love me twice as much as she does.

GONERIL: Listen, Father. You do not need twenty-five, ten or even five soldiers in a house where we have fifty servants to look after you.

REGAN: Why do you even need one soldier?

KING LEAR: Why do I need them? Even the poorest beggars have things that they don't need. If you only give people what they need to live, then they are little more than animals. You are a lady. If you just want to stay warm, you don't need those beautiful clothes you're wearing. They don't keep you warm at all. But, if you ask me what I really need, I need patience! Oh, give me patience, or I will go mad!

[King Lear exits with Gloucester and the Fool. There is a huge storm.]

CORNWALL: We should go inside; there's a big storm coming.

REGAN: This house is small; there isn't room for Lear and his soldiers.

GONERIL: Where is the Duke of Gloucester?

CORNWALL: He followed Lear.

[Gloucester enters.]

Here he is.

GLOUCESTER: The King is very angry. He has called for his horse.

CORNWALL: Let him go. He won't listen to anyone.

GONERIL: Yes, don't try to stop him.

GLOUCESTER: But it is nearly night and strong winds are blowing. There is nowhere to shelter for many kilometres.

REGAN: That will teach him a lesson. Lock the doors. He has his soldiers with him, and who knows what they'll persuade him to do.

CORNWALL: Regan is right. Lock the doors, it's a wet night. Come in out of the storm.

[They exit.]

Act III, Scene i

[In a field in the countryside. The storm continues. Kent enters with a soldier.]

KENT: Who's there, in this terrible weather? Where's the King?

SOLDIER: He's fighting with the wind and the rain. This terrible night would make a bear hide in a cave, but the King is running around outside without even a hat.

KENT: But who's with him?

SOLDIER: Only the Fool, who tries to make him happier with his jokes.

KENT: Sir, I trust you. I have got something to tell you. There's a disagreement between the Dukes of Albany and Cornwall. They both have servants who are really spies for the King of France. They have noticed that the Dukes are both against the King. Now the King of France has sent an army, and the French have spies at some of our ports. If you trust me, go quickly to Dover. There are people there who'll thank you when you tell them about the King's problems. I'm not the person who you think. I'm really an important man. If you see Cordelia, show her this ring, and she'll tell you who I am. Here's some money. Oh, this storm! I must go and find the King.

5 I don't understand. What do you ....?

A Christmas Carol

It was the end of December. It was dark outside and the streets were foggy. Scrooge was a very rich businessman, but he was mean and people didn't like him. Scrooge was working in his office with his assistant, Bob Cratchit. He was very cold because Scrooge wouldn't pay for a big fire to keep them warm.

There was only a small fire and it was very far away.

"It's late. Can I go home, Mr Scrooge?" Bob begged.

"Have you finished your work?" asked Scrooge.

Bob looked at the enormous pile of work left to do and sighed.

"You can't go home if you don't finish your work," continued Scrooge.

"If I finish all this work tonight, will you let me come to work a bit later tomorrow morning?" asked Bob.

"No," said Scrooge.

Suddenly the door opened and Scrooge's nephew, Fred, came into the office. He gave his uncle a friendly smile.

"Bah!" said Scrooge, "Why are you here? And why are you so happy? You're poor. What have you got to be happy about?"

"If you are so rich, why are you so sad?" replied Fred. "Perhaps if you were poor like me, you'd be happy like me, too."

"Have you come to ask me for money?" asked Scrooge in an unfriendly tone.

"No," replied his nephew. "I've come to invite you to dinner."

"Bah!" said his uncle.

Zero, first and second conditionals

Zero conditional

- Use the zero conditional to talk about rules and things that are generally true. We can use if or when.

If I go to sleep early, I wake up early.

First conditional

- Use the first conditional to talk about things that we think are possible or probable in the future.

If I wake up before you, I'll make breakfast.

Second conditional

- Use the second conditional to imagine present or future situations that are unlikely or impossible.

If I went to Paris, I would visit the Eiffel Tower.

Speaking

7 Work in pairs. Complete these ideas about the characters in A Christmas Carol. Then compare your ideas with another pair.

1. If Bob Cratchit works very hard, …
2. If Scrooge paid Bob Cratchit more money, …
3. If Scrooge thought about Bob Cratchit's health, …
4. Scrooge would be kinder if …
5. Bob Cratchit would be warmer if …
6. Fred might be less happy if …

If Bob Cratchit works very hard, he can finish all the work.

4 Why does Scrooge go to his nephew's house?

Speaking

3 Discuss the following questions in pairs or small groups.

1 What do you think happened in Scrooge's dream? Work in your group to check your answer.

2 What makes people change? How might other people react when they see someone has changed? Why?

4 Read the quotation and discuss the questions in pairs.

> If he hadn't felt so alone, he wouldn't have cared only about money. And if he hadn't cared about money so much, he would have treated other people better.

1 Why did Scrooge care so much about money?

2 Why did Scrooge treat people badly?

3 Do you think that Scrooge will feel alone in the future? Why?

A Christmas Carol: After a dream

The next morning, Scrooge woke up in his bed. He'd had a terrible dream, but now he could see his mistakes. If he hadn't felt so alone, he wouldn't have cared only about money. And if he hadn't cared about money so much, he would have treated other people better. Then he would have had more friends, and he wouldn't have felt so alone. But now he would change. He ran to his window and saw a boy in the street. "You! Boy!" he shouted out of the window. "Do you know the butcher's shop?"

"Yes, Mr Scrooge," shouted the boy. He was surprised to see Mr Scrooge smile.

"I want you to buy the best food and take it to Bob Cratchit's house as a gift from me to his family. Will you do this for me if I pay you?"

"Of course," said the boy and then he ran off before Mr Scrooge changed his mind.

Scrooge went out in the street and said, "Good morning," to all the people he met and he smiled at them. Everyone was surprised to see Mr Scrooge smiling, but they replied, "Good morning, Mr Scrooge," and that made Scrooge very happy.

Then he went to his nephew's house and asked if he could have dinner with him. Of course, his nephew smiled and invited him to come inside.

6 Lesson 5

Before you read

- Why did King Lear go out in the storm?

Act III, Scene ii

[In another part of the field. The storm continues. King Lear enters with the Fool.]

KING LEAR: Blow winds, and let the rain fill our houses with water! Let lightning cut a tree in two, and burn my white hair!

FOOL: Oh, old man, go inside, and ask your daughters to forgive you!

KING LEAR: I'm a poor, weak old man. Why is the weather being cruel to me, like my daughters?

[Kent enters.]

KING LEAR: Who's there?

FOOL: Ah, here's someone who is both a wise man and a fool.

KENT: Oh no, why are you here? Even bears want to stay in their caves on a night like this. There's so much wind and rain! The storm is terrible. Your majesty, there's a poor man's hut near here. It will shelter you from the storm. Stay there and rest, while I go to the house of your hard-hearted daughters.

KING LEAR: When I asked for you, they did not let me in their house, so I'll force them to allow you in. But I think I'm going mad!

[To the Fool.] How are you, my boy? I'm cold. Where's the straw? It's strange how I now want to have horrible things such as a bed of straw to sleep on!

[King Lear exits with Kent.]

Act III, Scene iii

[At Gloucester's castle. Gloucester enters with Edmund.]

GLOUCESTER: Oh, Edmund, I don't like the way Goneril and Regan are behaving with their father! When I asked them to help Lear, they told me not to talk about him or to look after him.

EDMUND: That's very cruel of them!

GLOUCESTER: Go to them; but do not say anything. There is some disagreement between the two Dukes, and maybe something even worse than that. I got a letter tonight …

[To himself.] No, it's too dangerous to talk about it to him.

[To Edmund.] I have locked the letter in my bedroom. Some of the French army have already arrived in England. We must help King Lear. I will go and look for him and help him. You go and talk to the Duke of Cornwall and do not tell him where I am. If he asks for me, tell him I'm ill and have gone to bed. Strange things are happening, Edmund. Please be careful.

[He exits.]

EDMUND: [To himself.] I'll go and tell the Duke immediately about your worries for the King, Father. I will tell him about that letter, too. Then I'll get rewarded for this, and I'll win the trust that my father loses. The younger man rises as the old man falls!

[He exits.]

Act III, Scene iv

[In a field in front of a hut. King Lear enters with Kent and the Fool.]

KENT: Here is a hut where we can shelter, my lord. Please, go inside. This terrible storm makes it impossible for anyone to stay outside.

KING LEAR: Oh, my cruel children! You sent me out into a terrible storm like this. Oh Regan, Goneril! Your kind old father gave you everything! But I'll go mad if I think about this. I won't think about it any more!

KENT: Please, go inside.

KING LEAR: [To the Fool.] You go in first, my boy.

[The Fool goes into the hut.]

Poor homeless people, you are always outside when there's a cruel storm. How can your hungry stomachs and old clothes help you when it rains? Why have I not thought about this before? Rich people should try walking in a poor person's shoes, and then the world would be a better place for us all.

[The Fool enters. He has just come out of the hut and he's very frightened.]

FOOL Don't go in there, sir. There's a mad man in that hut.

KENT: Who's in there?

FOOL: A mad man! He says his name is Poor Tom.

KENT: Who are you? Come out here.

[Edgar enters disguised as a madman called Poor Tom.]

6 Lesson 5

EDGAR: Keep away from me!

KING LEAR: Are you mad like me? Have you given everything to your two daughters?

EDGAR: Nobody gives anything to Poor Tom.

KING LEAR: Have his daughters done this to him? [To Edgar.] Don't you have anything?

FOOL: No, he only has a blanket.

KING LEAR: Only cruel daughters could have made a man so poor. Who were you?

EDGAR: I was a servant, who was very proud.

KING LEAR: It would be better if you were dead than go around with nothing but a blanket on a night like this!

FOOL: Look, here comes a walking fire.

[Gloucester enters carrying a torch.]

KING LEAR: Who's this?

GLOUCESTER: What's your name?

EDGAR: My name is Poor Tom, and I once had six shirts to wear and a horse to ride, but now all I have is mice to eat.

GLOUCESTER: Has your majesty nobody to help you apart from this mad man? Why have our children grown up to be so terrible, my lord? Why do they hate their fathers?

EDGAR: Poor Tom's cold.

GLOUCESTER: Come inside with me, your majesty. I didn't want to do what your cruel daughters asked me to do. They asked me to lock the doors and leave you outside on this terrible night. I've come to find you and take you home, where there's a fire and food ready for you.

KENT: My lord, please accept this man's offer and go to the house.

KING LEAR: First, let me talk to this philosopher. What are you researching?

EDGAR: I am researching how to keep warm and to kill mice.

KENT: [To Gloucester.] Ask him again, my lord. He's beginning to go mad. He thinks the poor man is a philosopher.

[Gloucester holds his torch in front of him and looking at Edgar and Kent, but they are both disguised.]

GLOUCESTER: I'm not surprised Lear is mad. His daughters want him to die. Ah, that good man, Kent! He knew what would happen – the poor man! I'm almost mad myself. I have a son who tried to kill me. No father loved his son more than I loved him. What a night this is! Please, your majesty, come with me.

EDGAR: Tom's cold.

GLOUCESTER: Go into your hut, Tom; keep yourself warm.

KENT: This way, your majesty.

KING LEAR: [Pointing to Edgar.] I am going with him!

KENT: My lord, let him bring the poor man with us.

GLOUCESTER: OK. Sir, come on; come with us.

KING LEAR: Let's go then, my good philosopher.

[They exit.]

REVISION R2

Lesson 1

Before you start

- What are some of the different ways that we enjoy stories?
- What is your favourite way to enjoy a story? Why?

New technology often changes the way we do things. In the past, people could only tell stories by talking to each other, but this changed when stories could be written down and read. Modern technology means we can read e-books and listen to audio books, but there are always new ways to enjoy great stories.

Chat stories are short stories that you can read on your smartphone. They look like messages between the characters in the story. And when you finish reading one part of the conversation, you tap the bottom of your screen to show the next message.

Reading a chat story feels like you're reading someone's messages. Some chat stories also include photos, audio and videos, so you can see what a character looks like and the expressions on their face. And some chat stories let you make choices about what happens next.

But some storytellers want us to go further. They invite us to imagine how our phones could show the world around us like we were in a film or a video game. Through our phones, we could also meet the characters from our stories. They think that we will learn to enjoy stories in a new way because we will be at the centre of the action. However, we must remember to make the stories fun and interesting because technology can become boring when we forget to include human feelings.

Reading

1 Read the text and choose the best title.

A The best new apps.

B The advantages of technology.

C New ways to enjoy stories.

2 Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

1 People have always been able to read and write. F

2 E-books are an example of modern technology. ☐

3 Chat stories are about reading someone else's messages. ☐

4 Chat stories can show you more than text. ☐

5 In some chat stories you can choose what happens next. ☐

6 Chat storytellers want people to stop using their phones so much. ☐

7 In the future, we could use our phones to meet characters from stories. ☐

8 New technology always makes stories more interesting. ☐

Digital footprints

Scientists have discovered human footprints in Australia that are 20,000 years old. There are footprints of a family with a small child, and five men who ran as fast as Olympic athletes. Footprints can tell us a lot about what people did, and they can last for a long time.

The phrase 'digital footprint' describes all the information that we leave behind when we use the internet. It includes things like our social media profiles, posts and the photos we upload, as well as the groups that we've joined and posts from other people that we've shared.

Our search history is also part of our digital footprint. Emails can remain online for years, and the comments that we make on videos can be seen by anyone.

Taha El-Sayed is an expert in internet security. He advises people to do an internet search for their own names to see what other people can find. Then we're supposed to remove anything that we don't like, and we're encouraged to close any social media accounts that we don't use anymore.

He says that we have to be careful with our behaviour and try to be positive online. When asked about advice for young people, he said, "Think about how other people could react to your photos, videos or comments. Control who can see your posts and keep photos and information private in social media."

He also warned young people not to share addresses, phone numbers or the name of their school with anyone online. He said, "Most young people don't mean to give away too much information, but they often forget about security when they meet new friends or join a group online."

Before you start

Work in pairs. Discuss the questions.

- Which famous people do you admire? Why?
- Do you and your partner admire the same people? Why
- What is the difference between a celebrity and a role model?

Writing

5 Imagine that you are Edgar. Write a diary entry about the night of the storm. Include what happened, how you felt about it and what might happen next.

Language Review

UNIT 1 must / have to must

Uses of must + infinitive

- for strong recommendation:
  You must visit the White Desert when you're in Farafra. It's amazing!
- For rules and obligations that come from the speaker:
  I must eat healthy food if I'm going to be an athlete.

Uses of mustn't + infinitive

- for strong negative advice:
  You mustn't miss this opportunity to see Paris!
- for prohibitions when rules and laws mean that something is not allowed.
  You mustn't talk in the library.

Uses of have to + infinitve

- to say something is important:
  You have to exercise if you want to be healthy.
- for rules and obligations that don't come from the speaker:
  You have to buy a ticket to travel on the train.

Use of don't have to + infinitive

- to say that there is no obligation. You can do something if you want, but it is OK if you don't:

  Use didn't have to to express lack of necessity in the past:
  I didn't have to wash my father's car; my brother had already washed it.

UNIT 2 Comparative and superlative adjectives

Comparative adjectives

Uses of comparative adjectives

- to make comparisons: We need a bigger house.
- to compare two things: My brother is older than me.
- to describe how something changes:
  She is growing taller.

NOTE:
We use a lot, much, far or a little before the comparative adjective to say that there's a big or a small difference between the two things:
The Giza pyramids are far older than the Cairo Citadel.
Those cakes are a little cheaper than these ones.
Nessma is much more sensible than she used to be.

Superlative adjectives

Uses of superlative adjectives

- to compare three or more things: I like all your books, but this one is the best*.*
- to describe extremes: Mount Everest is the highest mountain on earth.
- With short adjectives (1 syllable), we usually add -er to make comparatives and -est to make superlatives.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
long	longer	longest

- When an adjective ends in -e, we add -r to make comparatives and -st to make superlatives.

nice	nicer	nicest

- When an adjective ends in a vowel and a consonant, we double the consonant.

big	bigger	biggest

- When an adjective ends in a consonant and -y, we replace it with -ier in comparatives and -iest in superlatives.

happy	happier	happiest

- With long adjectives (two or more syllables), we usually add more for comparatives and most for superlatives.

expensive	more expensive	most expensive

- Some adjectives have irregular comparatives and superlatives.

good	better	best
bad	worse	worst
far	farther/furthest	farthest/furthest

From: Shady@mail.com

Dear Health Today,

My cousins, Imad and Munir, are visiting me again for a few days, and it's always a pleasure to see them. Unfortunately, because they are both less than seven years old, they sometimes forget how important it is to keep clean and stay healthy. At the moment, many people in my area have the flu and so these things are even more important than usual. What can I do to persuade my cousins to change how they behave?

They often come very close to show me things, like photos they have taken on their phones or something funny that they have found. And when they cough, they do not cover their mouths. They don't seem to understand why it is so important and it worries me a lot.

I'm also worried when I see them come inside because I don't think that they always wash their hands after they have been playing outside, touching things and getting dirty. They will clean their hands when I ask them, but I always have to remind them to do it.

I have heard that young children don't usually get very sick from flu and so they don't give the flu to older people, but I don't know if that is true. Do you think that I am right to worry?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours,
Shady

REMEMBER!

In a persuasive essay, you try to persuade or convince the reader of your point of view.

Do appropriate research on the topic to get enough information.

Provide enough reasons or evidence to support your point of view.

1 Read the article quickly and answer these questions.

1 What happened to Costa Rica in the 1980s? ....

2 Who will be visiting the Amazon rainforest in the future? ....

The future of forests

The world has been losing millions of trees from the rainforests every year for a long time. Many trees get cut down so that we have wood to make furniture, and many more get cut down because people need the land to grow food. However, there may be hope for the future because countries around the world are changing the way we think about these important areas.

Changes started a long time ago in Costa Rica. Around 60% of the rainforest in this small central American country was lost in the 1980s. But in the 1990s, the government started working with local farmers and persuaded them to look after the rainforest instead of cutting down more trees. This encouraged tourists to visit the country, and soon the local people started to make more money from tourism than from cutting down trees.

It was a great success, but things got worse in other parts of the world, such as the Amazon rainforest, until 2004. Then many people and governments around the world started to change how they thought about rainforests, and the number of trees cut down there has been getting smaller every year. Many parts of the Amazon rainforest are now protected and, like Costa Rica, it is hoped that more people will be visiting and enjoying this extraordinary place in the future. Finally, we can all hope that our children will be learning about the rainforests for many years to come.

2 Read the article again and answer the questions.

1 Why do some people worry about the future of rainforests?
Because people are cutting the trees down.

Hydroponics

With the population of the world predicted to grow to around 10 billion by 2050, one problem we will have is finding enough land for food production. A possible solution to this problem is using something called hydroponics.

Hydroponics is a way to grow plants without using any soil. Instead, farmers grow the plants in special water which contains all the food that plants need to grow. This is a big help for farmers living in areas with poor soil. Hydroponics uses a lot less space than traditional farming and, surprisingly, it also uses less water because any water that the plants do not use is reused. There are also fewer problems with insects. Almost any plant can grow using hydroponics and many plants produce more fruit and leaves this way.

Some people argue that hydroponics is not very good for large farms because they need expensive computers to control the flow of water, light, etc. to the plants, but others argue that it could offer the best solution to future problems. Many scientists think that in the future, we will be using hydroponics to grow food even in places where nothing grows now, such as deserts, Antarctica or even space.

2 Put the paragraphs of this essay about Urban Farming in the correct order.

Urban farming

a ◯ In the case of London, people already grow a lot of flowers in their gardens, but next year, the group of friends will be planting more fruit and vegetables in any open spaces they can use. At the end of the year, they will be eating fresh fruit and vegetables from these spaces.

b (1) This essay will focus on something my uncle is planning to do to help food production: something called urban farming.

c ◯ To conclude, urban farming is an interesting idea. All the evidence suggests that it could help us grow our own food in the future, even in cities without much outdoor space.

d ◯ My uncle lives in London and first, I will explain what urban farming is and why he wants to do it with a group of his friends. Urban farming is growing food in our cities. Of course, cities are not usually good for farming due to the fact that there is so little green space, but he says they will be using flat roofs, gardens and open spaces to grow what they can.

e ◯ In my view, urban farming is a great idea. It will help my uncle and his friends to save money in the shops, and it might also help them to earn money. They hope they will be selling some of the produce to local restaurants and markets.

6 Read the text and answer the questions.

There always seems to be new types of food in the supermarket. But what do we know about the food that we eat? Do we always know where it comes from, and can we trust it to make us strong and healthy?

Some experts worry that although we are living longer, many people are less healthy than in the past. This might be because we do not always eat healthy food.

Food producers all want to sell us their delicious products, but how healthy are they? Scientists tested food that we can buy in supermarkets and the results might surprise you. We all know that you mustn't drink water from the sea, but did you know that there are some types of soup that are saltier than seawater? Scientists also found that some fruit juice is worse for you than fizzy drinks, because although it is natural, it contains a lot of sugar. And it is thought that some sports drinks have eight teaspoons of sugar in them!

If you want to buy healthier food, you should check the labels on any food you buy at the supermarket. Personally, I will be cooking my own food from now on. In this way, I will always know the amount of sugar and salt in my meals. That must be a healthier way to eat!

1 According to the text, many people today … than people in the past.
A are healthier
B live longer
C eat nicer food
D use supermarkets more

2 What is the problem with some types of soup?
A They are made from seawater.
B They are fizzy.
C They are very salty.
D They have a lot of sugar in them.

3 Why do you think food companies put so much salt and sugar in the food which they produce?
A to make it taste good
B to make it healthier
C to improve the appearance
D to make it more expensive

Nihal, aged 16

A new girl has started at our school and I wanted to be friends with her. I spoke to her in the playground and we took a selfie together. That afternoon I posted it online, but she didn't like the photo and the next day at school she didn't speak to me. What did I do wrong?

Adam, aged 17

Last week, my friend sent me a text message to say that he was unhappy because he had failed a test at school. It was late and I didn't know what to say, so I decided to reply in the morning. But then too many things happened in the morning and I forgot. Now he thinks that I don't care. What should I have done?

4 Lesson 3

Reading

1 Listen and read the text quickly. Choose the correct answer.

a The English language has remained unchanged for two thousand years.

b French people can all speak English.

c The English language has changed many times.

2 Read the text again. Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)? Correct the false sentences in your notebook.

1 The English language came from the Romans two thousand years ago. [F]

The English language came from Germany when people called Angles and Saxons arrived about 500 years later.

2 The Angles and the Saxons came from Germany. [ ]

3 The French added more words to the English language than the Vikings. [ ]

4 The word house is a French word. [ ]

5 We can't use old words for new technology. [ ]

Endless change

The Romans spoke a language called Latin and they first took it to the country they called Britannia almost two thousand years ago. However, the English language came from Germany when people called Angles and Saxons arrived about 500 years later. Soon the Land of the Angles became known as England and the English have been using and misusing foreign words ever since.

For example, words like cake, eggs, and happy all come from Old Norse, which was the language spoken by the Vikings who came to England a few years after the Angles. However, many more English words came from the French, who arrived in 1066.

Unlike the poor people, who continued speaking English, all the rich and powerful people spoke French. That's why there are so many words in English with similar meanings. French words are recognisable because they usually describe something which is better. For example, the word house is an English word, but a big house is called a mansion, which is a French word.

In the modern age, we often reuse old words from the past to make new international words for technology. For example, the first part of the word helicopter is Greek and the second part is Latin, but the word was first used by a Russian speaker living in America.

Language

3 Complete the grid with words from the text.

Prefixes
mis-	re-	un-
misusing

Suffixes
-able	-er	-less

Writing

4 Write an essay in your notebook about the advantages and disadvantages of using international technology words in a language. Write about 180 words.

REMEMBER!

Begin your essay by introducing the topic.

Include both advantages and disadvantages, and write one or two paragraphs for each.

Use words like despite, nevertheless, yet, however and although to link your ideas.

Give your opinion and/or a balanced summary of the topic in the final paragraph.

Reading

1 Read the advice and tick the sentences that give good advice and correct the sentences that give bad advice.

2 Read the report and match the headings to the paragraphs.

Conclusion Findings Introduction Procedure

The aim of this report is to summarise the findings of the survey into the time students spend using social media.

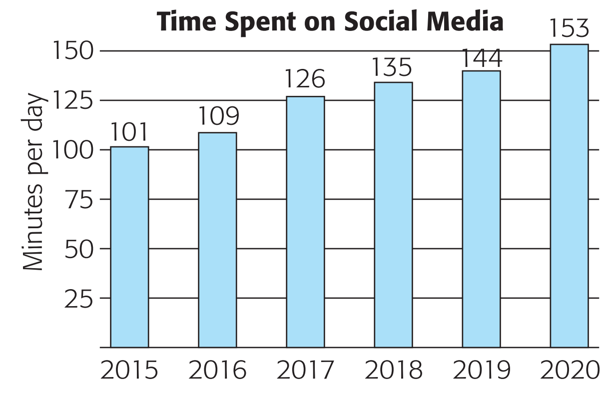

....

Between 2015 and 2020, we asked 1,200 students about the amount of time they spent using social media. We also asked them how they used social media, and what they liked and disliked about using it. We recorded our results and compared them.

Most of the students that we spoke to were surprised by how much time they spent on social media when they thought about it carefully.

Many students thought that they were spending too much time on social media and some students said that they would try to spend less time on social media. Some students reported that at least one member of their family had made a negative comment about it.

However, almost all of the students reported that they enjoyed using social media and most of the students did not want to stop using it.

Most students used social media on their phones. The students used social media to keep in touch with their friends, and to follow their interests or hobbies.

In general, students enjoy social media and they are using it more often. However, it is making a small number of students worried because they feel that they are spending too much time on it.

2 Remove a message or photo you have put on social media ....

3 Install the most recent version of a program ....

4 Made something better ....

5 To put information on social media ....

Are you internet smart?

Do you really know how to protect yourself online? There are several things you can do to stay safe.

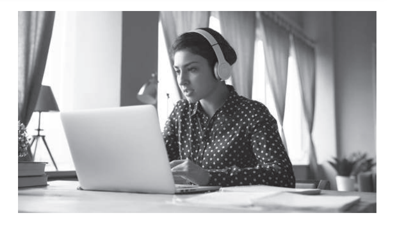

- Choose a strong password. Did you know the most common password in the world is '123456'? The best passwords should have numbers, letters and even a special character e.g. Tl342mS!*. It will be easier to remember if you make it personal in some way.
- When you go online, make sure you have upgraded your browser with the latest software update before you open a webpage.
- Be careful what you upload. Check what others can learn about you from what they can see behind you, and take down any photos you do not want others to download.

All of these tips seem obvious, but you'll be surprised how many people are careless online. Stealing someone's identity is more common than you think. Do not make the mistake of thinking that it can't happen to you.

Writing

5 Write about the research you did in the Student's Book.

- Which websites did you find?
- Do you think the websites are reliable? How do you know this?

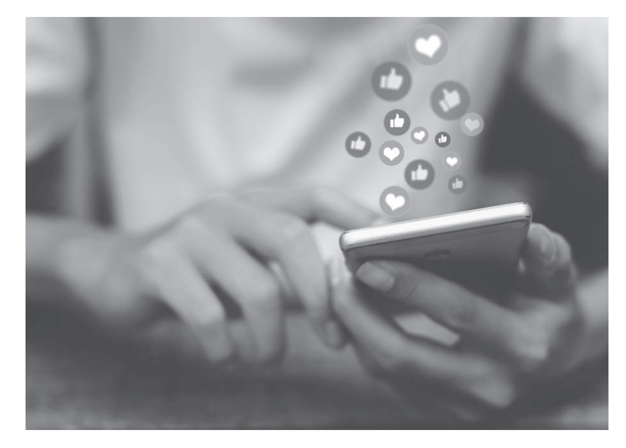

Vocabulary

1 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

~~follower~~ post subscribe views post

1 Click here to be a follower of the person or group.
2 Click here to .... a message or photo and share it.
3 This is where a .... will appear when you share something.
4 This shows you how many .... the page has had.
5 If you .... to the page, you will become a follower.

Reading

2 Read the sentence below and underline the key words. Now skim the text and decide if the sentence is true. Use the key words to help you decide.

It is easy for anyone to share something online with many people and we need to be careful because not everything is what it seems to be.

3 Scan the text and underline examples of the following expressions: seem to … / mean to … / (be) supposed to …

4 Scan the text and decide if these sentences are true (T) or false (F). Correct the false sentences in your notebook.

1 People who are older often give us good advice. T
2 Journalists are more careful about checking facts now. ☐
3 With access to the internet, anyone can spread false stories. ☐
4 Shane Fitzgerald posted a fake photo online. ☐
5 Some newspapers published Shane's information. ☐
6 If a story seems to be good news, you can believe it. ☐

Don't believe everything you read!

The title of this article is a piece of advice which we may have heard from our parents or grandparents. Although it was true in the past, the speed at which we have access to new information means that this warning is even more important now.

In the past, professional journalists always checked the facts that they wanted to publish against at least two reliable sources to make sure the story was correct. Checking sources, and the time needed to print something in a newspaper, meant that the news, which was meant to be new, was actually a day or two old.

Today the internet provides instant news and is a place where anyone can share information with the rest of the world at the touch of a button. This means that journalists often need to publish their stories quickly, so fact-checking isn't as good as it is meant to be. This is why not everything you read is what it seems to be.

Even serious newspapers, which are supposed to be reliable, can make mistakes. Shane Fitzgerald, an Irish sociology student, wanted to test the influence of the internet. He posted a fake phrase online. It was supposed to be something that a French musician who had recently died had said. Almost immediately several newspapers published the phrase and it was read all over the world.

The moral of the story is to listen to those with more life experience than you and remember not to trust everything you read online without checking it first.

How are your friendships?

Have you ever met a friend to spend time with them and, in the middle of a conversation, when you're talking, they start looking at their phone? When that happens, many people feel ignored and upset. And the problem may be getting worse because over 81% of Egyptian teenagers between the ages of 15 and 17 now own a phone.

Studies have shown that just having a mobile phone out while having a conversation makes friends feel uncomfortable with each other. And many people think that when someone is using their phone, they are not being polite and not really listening. So, using a phone like this can damage even good friendships.

However, there are ways to have a phone without losing your friends. Understanding the problem is important. So, the next time you are going to pick up your phone while talking to a friend, think about what you are doing and stop. Is your phone really more important than your friend? Perhaps you should keep your attention on the person you are talking to. And if a friend ignores you, tell them about it because they may not understand how it makes you feel.

So, if you want to be a kind and honest friend, keep your phone in your pocket and your eyes on your friendship.

5 Read the text and answer the questions.

What do you have to give to a plant in your home? Most people would say food, water and light. However, an Englishman did an experiment and he found that you only have to give a plant sunlight for it to grow. In 1960, David Latimer put a plant inside a large glass bottle with a little soil. In 1972, he gave the plant some water, then he closed the bottle. He has not opened the bottle since that time, and years later, the plant is still growing inside the bottle. The plant, which is in David Latimer's house, needs light from a nearby window, but nothing else. He doesn't have to water it or give it food.

The plant produces oxygen, which also puts water into the air. This means that the plant can use the water to survive. The plant's food source is its old leaves, which the water in the bottle helps to recycle. The plant is now more than 50 years old and it will continue growing inside the bottle for many more years.

Scientists are interested in this experiment because they think we will be able to learn important lessons about using plants like this in space. The plants will be a sustainable food source, and they will also help to take pollution from the air of a spaceship.

1 What does David Latimer give to his plant every day?
A some water B food and water C old leaves D nothing

2 When did David Latimer last open the glass bottle?
A 1960 B 50 years ago C 1972 D last year

3 What does the plant need from outside the bottle?
A light B water C oxygen D leaves

5 Read the text and answer the questions.

Last year, my friend Hesham and I decided to visit an old friend called Adam. We had first met Adam at Cairo University, but we lost touch with him when he moved to Thessaloniki in the north of Greece. I had always wanted to see Athens and so Hesham agreed to spend a few days there before we went to meet our friend. We decided to use an old guidebook of the city that my cousin, Sami, had given to me. It was supposed to be the best guide to the city. It seemed to be very detailed and it had a lot of maps.

At the time, I didn't realise that it had been more than fifteen years since my cousin last visited Athens. If we had known that his book had been written in 2003, we wouldn't have used it! It told us to avoid a lot of hazardous places in the city, so we did. Adam later told us that those areas were fantastic. We should have realised that a lot of changes had been made to the city for the 2004 Olympic Games. Areas that had not been very interesting in 2003 became very interesting after they were improved. If we had known about them, we would have gone to see those areas for ourselves.

When we left Adam, he gave us an up-to-date and reliable new guide to Greece, which we used to visit some of the islands. You could also read it online and download maps and updates. It was fantastic! If I went travelling again, I would definitely use an up-to-date guide.

1 Why didn't Hesham and the writer keep in touch with Adam?

A They fell out with him. B He went to a different school.
C He lived in a different country. D He spoke a different language.

2 What did the writer first think of the guidebook his cousin gave him?

A It seemed to be good. B He did not trust it.
C It was very old. D It was new and reliable.

3 Why did the writer and Hesham not visit some parts of Athens?

A Adam ordered them not to go there. B The Olympic Games were happening.
C The guidebook did not recommend them. D They did not have time.

4 How did they get information to travel around the islands?

A from an online guide B from a book
C from a guide that Adam wrote D from a man who knew the islands

5 What had changed in Athens since 2003?

6 What do you think the word 'hazardous' in the text means?

7 What do you think the writer learnt from his trip to Greece?

8 What problems do you think online guides might have?

6 Choose one of the two topics. Write about 180 words on the topic.

When you learn English, you should remember that languages are always changing. New words and phrases will appear and sometimes old words start to have new meanings. If you want to be really effective at learning a language, it is important to know about these new words. A list is published online every year. For example, unfriend is a new verb that is used when you stop being friends with someone on social media. The phrase fake news was added to dictionaries in 2019 after many false stories started to appear on social media. The phrase social distancing was first used in 2020 during the health emergency, and it means keeping away from other people.

The German word uber has recently been used in informal English to mean 'very successful', adding to the many other foreign words used in English, such as café (from French) and the small motorbike called a moped (from Swedish).

You might wish that English followed the example of the Portuguese language to make spelling easier. Portugal and Brazil both speak the same language, but the Portuguese recently changed the spelling of many words to follow the same rules that they use in Brazil because they are much easier. At the moment, however, if you learn English in many parts of the world, you usually have to learn the British English spellings, which can be more difficult than American English spellings.

1 It is important to .... changes to the English language.
A be aware of B take control of C be tempted by D bring back

2 You can use the verb unfriend when you want to stop .... friends on social media.
A losing touch with B keeping in touch with C subscribing to D uploading

3 The German word uber is an example of ....
A an informal use of an old word B a new informal word in English
C a foreign word used by successful people D a very common word in English

4 They changed the spelling of Portuguese because they wanted it to be ....
A like English B the same as the American spelling
C more traditional D easier

5 Why were phrases such as fake news and social distancing added to dictionaries recently?

6 What has not changed about the English language, according to the article?

7 Why do you think English uses words from other languages?

8 Do you think people should change the rules of a language to make it easier to learn? Why/Why not?

- New language is taught in context, so students develop learning skills which they can use throughout their lives.
- There is a focus on preparing students for the modern world as future employees and citizens so that they can deal effectively with the challenges of the modern world.
- Life skills, Values and Issues (such as communication, problem-solving and critical thinking skills, and an awareness of technology) are integrated throughout the course.
- Audio and video materials to accompany the course can be accessed on the Egyptian Knowledge Bank.
- All audio materials are recorded by native English speakers and provide excellent pronunciation models.
- The course maintains a distinct Egyptian focus, with an emphasis on Egypt's place within Africa and the wider world.
